High-Quality Checklist – Family Engagement Plan

Quality Measure	Proficiency	Proficiency in Progress	Proficiency to Begin	Follow-Up
1. The prekindergarten program has developed a written Family Engagement Plan that guides the collaboration, interaction and support of students' families.
2. The prekindergarten program implements the activities, events and practices that are written in the Family Engagement Plan.
3. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the first component: facilitating family-to-family support.
4. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the second component: establishing a network of community resources.
5. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the third component: increasing family participation in decision making.
6. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the fourth component: equipping families with tools to enhance and extend learning.
7. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the fifth component: developing staff skills in evidence-based practices that support families in meeting their children's learning benchmarks.
8. The written Family Engagement Plan contains sufficient activities, events and/or school practices that are linked to the sixth component: evaluating family engagement efforts and using evaluations for continuous improvement.
9. The written Family Engagement Plan is available on the district's, charter's, or campus' website.
10. The written Family Engagement Plan is used to assist the district or charter in achieving and maintaining high levels of family involvement.
11. The written Family Engagement Plan is used to assist the district or charter in achieving and maintaining positive family attitudes toward education.
12. The Family Engagement Plan is reviewed at least annually for its effectiveness in achieving positive child and family outcomes.				