Water Operator Class D

INDUSTRY-BASED CERTIFICATION DESCRIPTION

The Water Operators, Class D exam measures the following competencies. Students should know the major responsibilities of licensed operators in relation to public-health principles and goals; the types of potential waterborne diseases; the procedures and requirements for bacteriological sampling; definitions of the types of physical and chemical characteristics of water; the hydro logic cycle; sources of drinking water; general types of contaminants of drinking water; the requirements for conducting customer service inspections; sources of well contamination and general methods of well protection; major components of wells and each component's function; general knowledge of well pumps and motors; general purposes of various groundwater treatment processes; use common conversion units from a table of equivalents; solve basic water utility math problems using area, volume, and chemical dosage formulas.

To become licensed as a Class D Water Operator,an applicant must complete the required training, complete the TCEQ application, pay the application fee ($111), and pass the applicable exam.

For more information:
https://www.tceq.texas.gov/licensing/licenses/waterlic/#acceptD

CERTIFYING ENTITY	ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality 512-239-6134 https://www.tceq.texas.gov/licensing/licenses/waterlic/#acceptD	Exam Name: Water Operator, Class D Exam Website: https://www.tceq.texas.gov/licensing/licenses/waterlic/#acceptD Number of Questions:not listed Questions Type:not listed Exam Time:not listed	Exam Site: TCEQ regional office or approved computer-based testing center Exam Price: $111 application fee and exam fee will vary based upon testing center policies Candidate Requirements:candidates have to apply for their license and be pre-approved by the TCEQ to take the exam https://www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/licensing/WaterLicense.pdf Study Materials & Resources: https://www.tceq.texas.gov/licensing/licenses/waterworksntk#ClassD