Registered Dental Assistant

INDUSTRY-BASED CERTIFICATION DESCRIPTION

The Registered Dental Assistant X-Ray certification exam assesses a student's ability to: apply principles of radiation safety in the operation or radiographic equipment, explain factors affecting x-ray production, explain x-ray machine factors that influence radiation safety, identify differences between primary radiation and scattered (secondary) radiation, describe protocol in suspected x-ray machine malfunctions, practice safety measures for patient protection, and explain major cause of unnecessary radiation exposure.

For additional information, please visit the following link: http://tsbde.texas.gov/licensing/dental-assistants/registered-dental-assistant-x-ray-certification/

CERTIFYING ENTITY

Texas State Board of Dental Examiners

512-463-6400

http://www.tsbde.texas.gov/

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Exam Name: Registered Dental Assistant

Exam Website: http://tsbde.texas.gov/licensing/dental-assistants/registered-dental-assistant-x-ray-certification/

Number of Questions: 50 questions

Questions Type: Not Listed

Exam Time: Not Listed

Online application: https://vo.licensing.hpc.texas.gov/datamart/mainMenu.do;jsessionid=HnknhnBkjsY6QimIp-GXUugZ.i-09230d577b4f7d99a

Paper application- http://tsbde.texas.gov/78i8ljhbj/RDA-Licensure_20190801.pdf

Exam Price: $36

Candidate Requirements: http://tsbde.texas.gov/licensing/dental-assistants/registered-dental-assistant-x-ray-certification/

Study Materials & Resources: http://tsbde.texas.gov/licensing/dental-assistants/registered-dental-assistant-x-ray-certification/