Sarah's Vacation

Sarah and her family drove through the mountains and arrived at a campsite. After putting up the tent, the family took a walk to gather small branches.

They enjoyed cooking outdoors.

The family wanted to build a log cabin.

The family wanted to build a fence.

The family wanted to build a campfire.

The campsite was near a lake. Sarah and her parents fished all morning. Sarah caught the most fish. Later that evening the family ate the fish for dinner. Sarah liked the fish.

Sarah was unhappy because she had to clean the fish.

Sarah thought it was the best fish she had ever eaten.

Sarah laughed when her father dropped his fish in the lake.
