

Restorative Discipline Practices Stand-Alone Training Sessions

Building Relationships In Our Schools and Communities

Restorative Discipline

Texas Education Agency Commissioner Morath has asked that Restorative Discipline Practices remain sustainable after the University of Texas has completed the initial training. To that end, we have developed a stand-alone training for both the Administrator and the Campus Coordinator.

Session Trainings - Free of charge

Session	Date	Location	Time
Administrators	Sept. 11, 2017	Texas Education Agency 1701 N. Congress Ave Austin, Texas 78701 PDC 7 (ground floor)	8:00 AM – 5:00 PM
Administrators	Oct. 9, 2017
Campus Coordinators	Sept. 12-14, 2017
Campus Coordinators	Oct. 10-12, 2017

- Two sessions each for Administrators and Campus Coordinators.
- Seating is limited to 40 participants per session.
- Confirmation of registration will be sent via email.
- CPE credit earned for attending.

Registration

Complete registration form to attend.

More information on the TEA Restorative Discipline Practices web page.

Contact

Texas Education Agency
Division of School Improvement
Dr. Gaye Lang
(512) 463-2023
RDP@tea.texas.gov