The fine arts incorporate the study of dance, music, theatre, and the visual arts to offer unique experiences and empower students to explore realities, relationships, and ideas. These disciplines engage and motivate all students through active learning, critical thinking, and innovative problem solving. The fine arts develop cognitive functioning and increase student academic achievement, high-order thinking, communication, and collaboration skills. This makes the fine arts applicable to college readiness, career opportunities, workplace environments, social skills, and everyday life. Students develop aesthetic and cultural awareness through exploration leading to creative expression. Creativity is essential and the study of the fine arts nurtures and develops the whole child.

Four basic strands—perception, foundations: inquiry and understanding, creative expression: performance, historical and cultural relevance heritage, and critical evaluation and response—provide broad, unifying structures for organizing knowledge and skills students are expected to acquire will need in the 21st century. Through perceptual studies the foundations: inquiry and understanding strand, students develop a perception increase their understanding of self human relationships and others and develop clear ideas about the world using elements of drama and conventions of theatre. Through the creative expression strand a variety of theatrical experiences, students communicate in a dramatic form, make engage in artistic choices thinking, solve problems, build positive self-concepts, and relate interpersonally and integrate knowledge with other content areas in a relevant manner.
