SPECIAL EDUCATION HEARING OFFICERS
(September 2018)

Special education due process hearings are conducted by impartial private practice attorneys and Administrative Law Judges from the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH) who meet the standards outlined in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and additional standards set by the Texas Education Agency. Below are the names of the current special education hearing officers and descriptions of their professional experience.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HEARING OFFICER</th>
<th>PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Craig Bennett   | • Texas practicing attorney since 1995
  • Graduate of Baylor University School of Law
  • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2000
  • In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, employment law, civil rights, mediation, and governmental liability
  • Special education hearing officer in 2013 |
| David A. Berger | • Texas practicing attorney since 1992
  • Graduate of Texas Tech University School of Law, with an LL.M from the Judge Advocate General’s School of the Army
  • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2014
  • In addition to special education law, experience in administrative and criminal law
  • Former military judge
  • Special education hearing officer since 2014 |
| Beth Bierman    | • Texas practicing attorney since 1987
  • Graduate of the University of Texas School of Law
  • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH 1995-1998 and 2012 to present
  • In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, public utilities law, and mediation
  • Special education hearing officer in 2014 |
| Lucius D. Bunton| • Texas practicing attorney since 1980
  • Graduate of Southern Methodist University School of Law
  • In private practice at the Law Office of Lucius Bunton
  • In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, employment law, mediation, civil litigation, and civil rights litigation
  • Special education hearing officer since 1982 |
| Catherine Egan  | • Texas practicing attorney since 1981
  • Graduate of the University of Houston Law School
  • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 1995 and at the Department of Human Services since 1991
  • In addition to special education law, experience in construction and business litigation, administrative law, and mediation
  • Special education hearing officer since 2016 |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HEARING OFFICER</th>
<th>PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Steve Elliot        | • Texas practicing attorney since 2003
• Graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2017
• In addition to special education law, experience in Medicaid, juvenile law, insurance law, and the Americans with Disabilities Act
• Special education hearing officer since 2017                                                                                                                                 |
| Ray E. Green         | • Texas practicing attorney since 1978
• Graduate of the University of Texas School of Law
• In private practice at Dallas Mediation Group
• In addition to special education law, experience in civil and family litigation, employment law, disability law, employee grievance hearings, and mediation
• Special education hearing officer since 2017                                                                                                                                 |
| Shannon Kilgore      | • Texas practicing attorney since 1988
• Graduate of Harvard University Law School
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2000
• In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, environmental law and mediation
• Special education hearing officer in 2013                                                                                                                                 |
| Kimberlee Kovach     | • Texas practicing attorney since 1981
• Graduate of Capital University Law School
• In private practice at Kovach Dispute Resolution
• In addition to special education law, experience in civil litigation, family law, employment law, health care matters and mediation
• Special education hearing officer since 2017                                                                                                                                 |
| Kathryn Lewis        | • Texas practicing attorney since 2005
• Graduate of the Golden Gate University School of Law
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2017
• In addition to special education law, experience in disability benefits entitlement, Medicaid, guardianship, and mental health law and policy
• Special education hearing officer since 2017                                                                                                                                 |
| Ann Vevier Lockwood  | • Texas practicing attorney since 1984
• Graduate of the University of Texas School of Law
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2016
• In addition to special education law, experience in civil litigation, employment law, civil rights law, employee grievance hearings, and mediation
• Former classroom teacher
• Special education hearing officer since 1990                                                                                                                                 |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HEARING OFFICER</th>
<th>PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Sandy Lowe           | • Texas practicing attorney since 1992
• Graduate of the University of Texas School of Law
• In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, employment law, teacher contract hearings, civil rights law, and mediation
• Former classroom teacher
• Special education hearing officer since 2017                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Deborah McElvaney    | • Texas practicing attorney since 1983
• Graduate of South Texas College of Law
• In private practice at DHMcElvaney Law, PLLC
• In addition to special education law, experience in administrative law, commercial law, mediation, civil litigation, arbitration, and state and federal appellate law
• Special education hearing officer from 1996-2013                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Michael O’Malley     | • Texas practicing attorney since 1989
• Graduate of St. Mary’s University School of Law
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 1995
• Administrative Law Judge/Hearings Examiner at the Texas Public Utility Commission from 1990-1995
• Experience in administrative law, public law, environmental law, and mediation
• Special education hearing officer in 2015                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Kerrie Qualtrough    | • Texas practicing attorney since 1990
• Graduate of the South Texas School of Law
• Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2009
• Experience in administrative law, environmental law, utility law, and mediation
• Special education hearing officer in 2014                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Lynn E. Rubinett     | • Texas practicing attorney since 1985
• Graduate of Northeastern University School of Law
• In private practice at the Law Office of Lynn E. Rubinett
• In addition to special education law, experience in civil litigation, civil rights law, labor and employment law, education law, disability rights law, administrative law, and mediation
• Special education hearing officer from 1994-2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Brenda Rudd          | • Texas practicing attorney since 1982
• Graduate of Texas Tech University School of Law
• In private practice at Brenda Rudd, Attorney at Law
• In addition to special education law, experience in civil and criminal litigation, family law, administrative law, and mediation
• Former classroom teacher
• Special education hearing officer since 2003                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HEARING OFFICER</th>
<th>PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Ian Spechler     | • Texas practicing attorney since 2007
                             • Graduate of the University of Texas School of Law
                             • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2017
                             • In addition to special education law, experience in child welfare law, juvenile law, housing law, and Medicaid law
                             • Special education hearing officer since 2017 |
| Kasey White      | • Texas practicing attorney since 2003
                             • Graduate of Texas Tech University School of Law
                             • Administrative Law Judge at SOAH since 2017
                             • In addition to special education law, experience in criminal and civil litigation, family law, and child support
                             • Special education hearing officer since 2017 |