#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	community outreach	6/27/2018 9:52 PM
2	focus on resources for schools to increase effective communication with parents	6/27/2018 4:07 PM
3	No more teacher trainings led by lawyers. Teachers should be taught by professionals with advanced degrees (at least master's degree) and background in education, educational research, child development. Teachers and administrators should take an annual online exam to refresh their knowledge of child development, detecting dyslexia and related disorders, autism, speech related disorders, child abuse and how to report it.	6/25/2018 4:46 PM
4	Emphasis on understanding the full special education process (for example, providing a flow chart for parents); Translation of ARD paperwork into languages other than English	6/25/2018 1:52 PM
5	Training to work with my child at home especially with core subjects.	6/25/2018 1:03 PM
6	Communication standards	6/25/2018 4:06 AM
7	Suggested programs, camps, parent support groups in our area to meet the needs of my child with multiple special needs	6/24/2018 10:56 PM
8	Game nights that include parents and students.	6/24/2018 6:13 PM
9	Support and links to resources for families struggling with substance misuse.	6/21/2018 10:57 PM
10	Improve focus of language acquisition for Deaf kids	6/20/2018 8:30 PM
11	deaf education	6/20/2018 8:29 PM
12	Help to bring my child to her grade level. When a child is evaluated test must be on their level to help identify how much the student is behind and come up with a plan and implemented.	6/20/2018 6:43 PM
13	connecting parents with resources available in the community and education the community on our children	6/20/2018 8:04 AM
14	Train staff to work collaboratively with families. We are not the enemy - train them to work with us, not against us to help our children. Provide free assistance for parents when schools break the law and can give guidance to the districts. Schools routinely break the law and unless a parent has extensive financial resources, they get away with it.	6/18/2018 5:48 PM
15	Texas Project First is a great website.	6/14/2018 2:12 PM
16	Texas Project First	6/14/2018 12:40 PM
17	Love the Texas Project FIRST website! Wish they could get out and share their knowledge with more folks. How can you use the big parent organizations to support this network? I have learned so much from other family members that have gone before me.	6/14/2018 9:57 AM
18	"Before the ARD meeting" parent training; "New to SpEd" parent training that encourages connection to school/district supports	6/13/2018 1:42 PM
