Texas Title I Priority Schools Grant
Schedule #4—Program Summary and Application Requirements
Part 1: Grant Program Information;
Summary of Program: Purpose and Goals
School Improvement Grants, authorized under section 1003(g) of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (Title I or ESEA) as amended by ARRA, are grants, through the Texas Education Agency, to local educational agencies (LEAs) for use in Title I schools identified for improvement, corrective action, or restructuring and other eligible campuses that demonstrate the greatest need for the funds and the strongest commitment to use the funds to provide adequate resources in order to raise substantially the achievement of their students so as to enable the schools to make adequate yearly progress and exit improvement status. Under the final requirements, as amended through the interim final requirements published in the Federal Register in January 2010 school improvement funds are to be focused on each State's "Tier I" and "Tier II" schools. Tier I schools are a State's persistently lowest-achieving Title I schools in improvement, corrective action, or restructuring and certain Title I eligible elementary schools that are as low achieving as the State's other Tier I schools. Tier II schools are a State's persistently-lowest achieving secondary schools that are eligible for, but do not receive, Title I, Part A funds and certain additional Title I eligible secondary schools that are as low achieving as the State's other Tier II schools or that have had a graduation rate below 60 percent over a number of years. An LEA may also use school improvement funds in Title I schools in improvement, corrective action, or restructuring that are not identified as persistently lowest-achieving schools and certain additional Title I eligible schools ("Tier III schools"). In the Tier I and Tier II schools an LEA chooses to serve, the LEA must implement one of four school intervention models: turnaround model, restart model, school closure, or transformation model.
Allowable Activities
Tier I and Tier II Grantees <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Grantees must expend grant funds for the required activities delineated for the selected intervention model as defined in the final federal regulations. ■ Grantees may expend grant funds for the permissible activities delineated for the selected intervention model as defined in the final federal regulations. ■ Grantees may expend grant funds for other school improvement activities deemed needed to address identified needs not addressed by the intervention model selected. Tier III Grantees <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Tier III grantees may select one of the four intervention models in the federal regulations or the state's Tier III Transformation Model. ■ If selecting one of the four models in the federal regulations, grantees must expend grant funds for the required activities delineated for the selected intervention model as defined in the final federal regulations. Grantees may expend grant funds for the permissible activities delineated for the selected intervention model as defined in the final federal regulations. ■ Grantees may expend grant funds for other school improvement activities deemed needed to address identified needs not addressed by the intervention model selected. In addition, a Tier I, Tier II, Tier III grantee campus that has implemented, in whole or in part, either the Turnaround, Restart, or Transformation models within the last two years may continue or complete the implementation of the intervention model with the TTIPS grant funds. For example, if a grantee campus has replaced its principal within the last two years, the LEA/campus will not be required to hire another new principal. An LEA/campus that receives TTIPS SIG funds in accordance with this flexibility must fully implement the selected model as required by the final federal requirements. In other words, if the school had been implementing the model only in part, it must use the funds it receives to expand its implementation so that it fully complies with the federal regulatory requirements. The detailed required and permissible activities for each intervention model, as defined in the final federal regulations are listed on Schedule #4—Program Requirements and are incorporated by reference herein.

Harris Elementary School in Austin Independent School District (AISD) in Austin, Texas, will implement the modified Texas Transformation Project (Model) available for Tier III schools on the extended implementation timeline with funding from the Texas Title 1 Priority Schools (SIG) program. Harris will receive technical assistance from the School Improvement Resource Center (SIRC) as it undergoes a campus-wide transformation. To further support the goals of the TTIPS Transformation Initiative at Harris, the district will implement programs to ensure that all students have access to academically rigorous programs of study, particularly new Early College High Schools (ECHS) and Early College Prep Academies being developed within the District. All work will be horizontally and vertically aligned and will ensure students are prepared for college, career, and life. Harris Elementary will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Develop and implement an AVID Elementary program provided by AVID National and a Club AVID after school informal science and math learning environment. During Club AVID, students have access to between one and three hours tutoring, two hours of hands-on exploratory math and science educational activities; and one hour of college awareness per week. 2. Will strengthen and expand its three-tiered school wide Response to Intervention (RtI) system in which high quality instruction and interventions matched to student need are provided. 3. Will expand student and family social supports to include Positive Behavior Support (PBS) and Social-Emotional Learning (SEL). SEL will be embedded in all instructional preparation at Harris Elementary. Developing students' academic skills is not enough to foster rich learning; teachers must also develop students' social and emotional skills. SEL is the process of acquiring the skills to recognize and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, establish positive relationships, make responsible decisions, and handle challenging situations effectively (CASEL, 2006). 4. To further ensure more students are well-prepared to participate in the District's signature program (ECHS and Early College Prep Academy), Harris Elementary will use grant funds to strengthen ELL supports for elementary students. 5. Implement the District's nationally-recognized strategic compensation initiative, REACH, to recruit, place, and retain high-quality instructors. These strategies are designed to address weaknesses in performance in the core content areas of mathematics, reading, and science, as assessed by TAKS, and to promote college readiness, as state achievement data suggests many of these students attending school in the LBJ High School vertical team within AISD are not academically ready for college-level coursework. The elementary SIG plan will target five key objectives: All elementary schools will achieve Recognized or Exemplary ratings in the State accountability system in the next five years; All elementary schools will reduce academic achievement gaps in Math and Science by at least 50% over the next five years; All elementary students will be reading and writing on grade level over the next five years; All elementary students will develop the confidence and character necessary to be respectful, responsible contributing members of their community; All elementary students will actively participate in projects and activities that encourage them to constructively explore and discover their talents, and aspirations; and All elementary students will successfully transition to middle school on time and prepared for success.

Schedule #4B—Program Description

Section C: Process Responses are limited to the space provided, front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).

Describe, in detail, the process the LEA and campus followed/will follow to identify the needs of the campus.

State and federal law require schools to complete a Comprehensive Needs Assessment (CNA) as part of the institution's planning, budgeting, and decision making process. The Texas Education Code (TEC) Sections 11.252(a) (1-2) and 11.253 mandated that the campus plans must "include provisions for a comprehensive needs assessment addressing student performance on the student achievement indicators, and other appropriate measures of performance. . . . Campus-level committees must assess the academic achievement for each student in the school using the student achievement indicator system."

Likewise, schools receiving Title 1 funds to operate a school wide program, as Harris Elementary School does, must participate and complete a CNA of the entire school, to include migrant students, and provide information on how all students are fairing on meeting a rigorous and challenging academic content and achievement standards.

The CNA drives the district's use of NCLB funds and enables AISD and Harris High School to monitor and assess the impact of federally, Title 1 funded programs on campus. Harris Elementary School has participated in a campus-based CNA and will continue to do so, as campus and AISD staff study the campus to identify needs of students. Based on the most recent CNA of School, AISD will implement a Transformation Model under the TTIPS program, if funded.

The CNA Harris completes is based on the NCLB CNA format, a five step process linking the CNA to the review and development of campus/district improvement plans. Each campus Title 1 point of contact is provided directions for completing the CNA at annual Title 1 Point of Contact meetings, most recently held in April and January of 2010.

The five step process asks campus administration and staff and the Campus Advisory Committee, consisting of staff members, parents, students, non-profit organizations, and community members, to work collaboratively to establish the goals and the purpose of the CNA, to ensure that there will be multiple stakeholders involved, to share the purpose and goals of the CNA with all stakeholders, and to identify short and long-term timelines for completing the CNA. Committees are established to explore specific areas that must be addressed in the CNA, such as collecting student demographics, student achievement information, etc.

The CNA team determines which types of data will be considered and analyzed by the Committee to develop the school profile. When working with campus/District data, participants must identify what data to collect, how to organize it in such a manner that it is useful in their planning work, what data collection tools required, if any, how the committee can ensure data is kept confidential and FERPA is not violated, and must develop a process for ensuring that subcommittees working on the CNA are making data-driven instructional and administrative decisions.

From this data, the CNA committee determines areas of priority and summarizes campus needs, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the campus/district and its representative groups, what evidence supports the strengths/needs, what are the campus and district priorities, and what is there to learn about the campus and district, making necessary connections between all programs, when possible, to ensure services are aligned, not duplicated.

Finally, the work completed in the CNA process is connected to the Campus Improvement Plan (CIP) development and review process. The findings of the CNA are incorporated into the CIP and are reflected in summary statements. The strengths identified in the CNA are addressed in the CIPs for campus and district, and administrators identify strategies and activities to further build on these strengths. Likewise, any weaknesses identified in the CNA are included in the CIP, as staff work to identify activities and/or strategies to address these issues and improve student outcomes. All priorities and needs identified in the CIP, which are clearly connected to the CNA, must correlate with justifications for NCLB program expenditures. To ensure that strengths, weaknesses, strategies and activities outlined in the CIP are compliant with NCLB program regulations, campus send a copy of their CIP and the work completed during the CNA process to the Director of State and Federal Accountability, who either reviews CIPs herself or identifies appropriate staff to do so.

Harris administrators/staff will continue to complete the yearly needs assessment and to develop a CIP based upon a thorough assessment involving as many stakeholders as possible, and will work with technical advisors from the School Improvement Resource Center (SIRC), as needed or required, for conducting an effective needs assessment.

Schedule #4B—Program Description
Section A: LEA (District) Capacity Responses are limited to one page each , front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).
Partnership/Involvement of Others – Describe how the LEA/campus consulted with relevant stakeholders (students, staff, parents, community) regarding this application and proposed implementation of a school intervention model.
AISD staff and the current Principal of Harris Elementary School, Gloria Arredondo, have consulted with the current Campus Advisory Committee (CAC) regarding the proposed transformation intervention model for the school. The CAC consists of parents, students, professional and classified staff, directors of any special academic programs on campus, community members, and non-profit organizations that participate in the Campus Needs Assessment and in developing Campus Improvement Plans.
In addition to reviewing the possible TTIPS proposal with the CAC, the current principal has met with her staff to review the plans for a Transformation initiative. Separate meetings were held for campus-based administrators and district staff was present at these meetings to answer questions. The most recent faculty meeting where staff reviewed planned TTIPS activities was March 25, 2010.
District staff was also available during vertical team planning meetings for Harris Elementary School and the associated middle and elementary schools to ensure that all activities were not just horizontally aligned, but vertically aligned, so students entering Harris Elementary School would have a strong academic base when entering high school. Vertical team planning meetings were most recently held on May 4 and May 12, 2010.
Above campus-based and central office meetings, TTIPS options were discussed at East Austin Priorities Meetings. The East Austin School Priorities meetings, held with campus staff and administration, AISD central administration, parents, students, community members, and nonprofit and faith-based organizations east of IH35, are directly tied to the AISD Strategic Plan that establishes a road map for achieving high student performance and fiscal accountability for AISD over the next five years. This work is informed by the new Promise Neighborhood Initiative and by the work the AISD/City of Austin/Travis County Joint Subcommittee on truancy and student mobility.
Of note, the East Austin Priorities meetings also highlighted calls from the community for equal access to education programming that doesn't stigmatize East Austin schools or students as only schools of poverty and at-risk students, the need to stop closing schools and moving students to different schools, to close schools and then reopen them later with the enough staff to fully implement any new design and/or programming that will be offered to students, and make a deliberate effort to create "signature" academic programs within every vertical team. The Harris Elementary School TTIPS proposal is clearly aligned with the desires of the East Austin community, and AISD has and will continue to allocate resources to ensure we meet the expectations of our parents, students, and staff within these schools and of school community members.

Developing and implementing academic supports and interventions for all students in East Austin schools. 4. Developing content literacy and numeracy comprehensive plans to ensure all students are on grade level as they transition from elementary to middle to high school, and ultimately to college. 5. Increase attendance among elementary, middle, and high school students for all groups. Action steps were identified to support these objectives. For example, to support increases in educator quality, vertical team leaders will conduct a needs assessment of faculty members in order to create and provide a tiered differentiated early college plan for professional development, including instructional leaders, support staff, and teachers. Leadership will provide professional development in critical areas of ELL strategies, relationship building, high yield vocabulary strategies, and technology. Professional development will be job-embedded through content specific coaching strategies. The vertical team will expand and accelerate the leadership and supports for the development of campus-based professional learning communities for teachers to engage in content specific strategies and lesson plan development. The district will attempt to secure funds to provide strategic compensation for all schools within the vertical team, will support participation in the Texas Turnaround Leadership Academy, and will create a full-time, sustainable teacher-mentor program at every LBJ vertical team school. Additionally, the vertical team will work collaboratively to develop an administrative mentor/induction program for new administrators. To support the development of signature programs, the LBJ vertical team leaders will take the following action steps: improve the content, quality, and use of required formative assessments and reduce the number of assessments required at the classroom, school, cluster, and district level; ensure that the ECHS is research-based, aligned to the district's curriculum and to the needs of students; ensuring fidelity of implementation of the district's common curriculum and the ECHS curriculum and emphasizing rigorous learning; examining the learning needs of every child and ensuring there are timely supports for teachers and students; articulating and communicating clear parameters for the allocation of staff and resources for special education students across the vertical team schools; ensuring that the Harris English Language Learner program is comprehensive, compliant, and includes a well-developed plan for English transition that is closely monitored and implemented with fidelity; implement the ECHS model at Harris, providing students the pre-requisite skills and supports at the middle and elementary school level, to include implementing Club AVID with fidelity at the elementary school level; providing students 21st-century technology; and, showcasing high quality examples of project based learning and portfolios annually as a way to promote the ECHS model. Additional information regarding action steps to support all five LBJ vertical team targets is available in the "East Austin Schools Plan: Harris Vertical Team" document available on the AISD web site.

Schedule #4B—Program Description
Section A: LEA (District) Capacity Responses are limited to one page each , front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).
LEA Support – Describe how the LEA will structure and implement an individual or office with responsibility for supporting the campus' school improvement efforts.
Using Texas Title I Priority Schools Grant funds, AISD will hire one .25 full-time equivalent (.25 FTE) District Director. The Director will work collaboratively with the Associate Superintendent of Elementary Schools to ensure all program objectives are met.
The Director will chair a cross-functional team consisting of representatives from the Office of State and Federal Accountability, the Finance Office, the Department of Human Resources, the High School and Middle School Offices, the Department of Program Evaluation, the Purchasing Department, and the Department of Curriculum and Instruction to ensure effective implementation of program components. The TTIPS team will meet at regularly-scheduled intervals to review program progress and/or concerns.
He or she, with the Associate Superintendents of Elementary Schools, will report directly to the Chief Schools Officer at regularly scheduled meetings that will include the Chief Academic Officer, the Chief Performance Officer, and the Associate Superintendents of Middle and Elementary Schools, as appropriate and necessary. The Director and the cross-functional team will meet with and report on program progress to the Superintendent quarterly.
The TTIPS Director will work with District staff and campus administration to ensure effective resource management, including ensuring that all purchases and services support programmatic goals. He or she will have the support of the AISD Purchasing Department to ensure that all purchases of goods and services for a TTIPS campus are completed in a timely fashion and follow AISD procurement procedures.
He or she will meet regularly with the campus principal and SIRC staff to evaluate 90-Day Action Plans and ensure that all services provided on campus and that all activities currently underway are aligned with the current 90-Day Plan. He or she will have the support of a .215 FTE administrative assistant.
To further support the TTIPS initiative within AISD, a .25 compliance officer and a .25FTE Budget Technician will be provided with grant funds. All AISD grant budgets, including the TTIPS grant budget, are supervised by a Grant Compliance Officer in the Office of State and Federal Accountability who has the final responsibility for funds. He or she will ensure the grant is managed according to grant guidelines, District policies and procedures, and applicable laws and regulations. The Compliance Officer will review and approve all activity and expenditures involving the grant and ensure that all applicable requisitions and expenditures are submitted on a timely basis. He or she will review the financial reports to ensure all expenditures are appropriate and necessary, will be responsible for the line-item budget, will be available to answer questions from auditors and grant monitors, and will be responsible for finding funding for disallowed expenditures. The Compliance Officer will meet regularly with the District Director to review compliance issues.
Finally, the TTIPS program will have a .25FTE staff member to conduct program evaluation from the AISD Department of Program Evaluation. Evaluation staff will assist the District Director in determining best strategies for implementing formative evaluation procedures and work with SIRC to develop and complete a summative evaluation of the initiative. As with Compliance staff, the TTIPS evaluator will meet regularly with the District Director to review program progress and address concerns.

Section A: LEA (District) Capacity Responses are limited to one page each , front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).
Program Continuation and Sustainability – Describe how the LEA will sustain the campus reforms after the funding period ends.
AISD is committed to ensuring all funding and resources provided through the Texas Title I Priority Schools Grant program within the District translate into continued high-quality programs and professional development to support the success of schools and students within the District.
The District has currently allocated resources to support struggling schools in Austin. Above funds available under the TTIPS program for the 2010 to 2011, 2011 to 2012, and 2012 to 2013 school years, AISD is moving quickly to address the issue of academically unacceptable schools east of IH35 through our internal School Turnaround Initiative and the East Austin Priorities meetings.
For the AISD School Turnaround Initiative, the District has set aside roughly 3.5 million dollars to support strategic intervention in our lowest-performing schools. Individual schools submit a proposal to the District staff for funding either a whole school turnaround model or implementation of strategic programs within schools to address specific needs. These proposals are developed collaboratively with parent, teacher, administrator, central office, and community representatives and included discussion of possible TTIPS funding and the required federally-established four intervention models within the program. The School Turnaround Initiative and internal proposals submitted by individual campuses, especially for those campuses east of IH35, are part of a larger focus on addressing lagging student achievement in schools located in that area. AISD will continue to support struggling schools after TTIPS funding ends.
In following the Texas Transformation Project Extended Implementation timeline, AISD central office staff, the TTIPS District Director, and the Harris Elementary School Principal and administrators will work with representatives from the AISD Finance Office, from the Office of State and Federal Accountability, and with the TTIPS cross-functional team in year three of the grant to develop an extensive sustainability plan for TTIPS-funded programs at Harris Elementary School. Developing a long-term sustainability plan is required in year three of the Texas Transformation Project.

External Providers -- Describe how the LEA will recruit, screen, and select external providers to ensure their quality.
Selection of external providers, whether for goods or services, will follow AISD Purchasing Procedures to ensure a fair and effective procurement process.
For purchases of goods and equipment, all purchases of less than $1,000 require one verbal quote from a vendor. For those between $1,000 and $10,000 the campus must obtain at least three quotes from vendors. Each vendor should be furnished with the same written specifications. Purchases of $10,000 or more cannot be made without formally advertising and issuing a formal solicitation, and purchases of $50,000 or more must be approved by the Board of Trustees. Formal solicitations may be made by competitive bidding, a request for proposals, or a request for offer used only for technology.
Request for Bids are requested by an electronic requisition. Each request= includes specifications describing what is needed and is most appropriate for the acquisition, the total dollar amount of the procurement and an account number, the date required, and suggested sources of supply. The award criteria for a sealed bid is that bids be awarded to the responsible bidder submitting the lowest bid complying with the conditions of the contract documents, provided the bid is reasonable and in the best interests of the district.
A Request for Offer (RFO) used for technology purchases to AISD vendors is issued by the Purchasing Office. A RFO may be an informal fax to vendors or a formal written request for offer and must be solicited through a competitive process to at least three (3) vendors, unless justification is provided supporting a sole source or restrictive vendor. The award of an RFO is based on "best value."
Items that are generally considered sole source under purchasing guidelines are items for which competition is precluded because of the existence of a patent, copyright, secret process, or monopoly; a film, manuscript, or book only available from one publisher; or a captive replacement part/component for equipment only available from the original equipment manufacturer (OEM). Sole source purchases can only be made after a good faith effort has been conducted and a determination has been made that there is only one source for the required good or service.
A Request for Proposals (RFP) is used where many requirements (price being only one) must be considered in determining and award. It is normally used for major procurements, requires development of a statement of work, proposal format, and evaluation criteria and should be used when purchasing professional services. A committee typically evaluates responses to an RFP. Negotiation may take place prior to award. Purchasing must issue all AISD RFPs. For procurement of external contractors for the Harris TTIPS initiative, the committee evaluating proposals will consist of the District Shepherd, the campus principal, the Associate Superintendent of Elementary, Middle, and High Schools, and other staff, as identified by the Chief Schools Officer.
District-wide contracts have been competitively bid by the Purchasing Office for items that are commonly used throughout AISD. Contracts have been set up for the use of all district campuses and departments.
Alternate procurement sources include state contracts from the State of Texas TBPC (Texas Building and Procurement Commission) and interlocal agreements. Staff from the Purchasing Office will support the District Shepherd, the Associate Superintendents, and campus administrators to ensure efficient and timely procurement of goods and services under the TTIPS program.

Schedule #4B—Program Description

Part 3: Intervention Model

Section B: Model Selection Process –Describe in detail:

1. The process the LEA and campus followed/will follow to select a school intervention model that aligns to the identified needs of the campus.
2. The timeline delineating the steps the campus will take to implement the selected intervention.

Responses are limited to five pages, front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).

The first step in determining that Harris Elementary School would implement the Transformation model with TTIPS funds was to evaluate the most recent Campus Needs Assessment and Campus Improvement Plan to identify the campus's strengths and weaknesses. These documents were used as resources for completing Appendix B of the "LEA TTIPS Decision-Making Team: Recommendations and Resources for Its Creation and Facilitation," provided to AISD at the TEA conference hosted by the Region 13 Educational Service Center. In addition to the review of Harris's most recent CNA, CIP, and Appendix B of the TEA working documents, AISD district-level administrators and campus administrators met with a number of stakeholders to discuss the intervention model best suited to the school's current climate.

Staff has consulted with the current Campus Advisory Committee (CAC) regarding the proposed transformation intervention model for the school. The CAC consists of parents, students, professional and classified staff, directors of any special academic programs on campus, community members, and non-profit organizations that participate in the Campus Needs Assessment and in developing Campus Improvement Plans.

In addition to reviewing the possible TTIPS proposal with the CAC, the current principal has met with her staff to review the plans for a transformation initiative. Separate meetings were held for campus-based administrators and district staff was present at these meetings to answer questions. District staff was also available during vertical team planning meetings for Harris Elementary School and the associated middle and high school principals to ensure that all activities were not just horizontally aligned, but vertically aligned, so students entering Harris would have a strong academic base when entering high school.

The additional programs that Harris Elementary will like to implement under the TTIPS grant, which are not required but allowable, were identified as part of this year's vertical team planning and are designed to ensure that all students are well-prepared to participate rigorous courses of study, particularly the ECHS program, that are being developed within the District to prepare students for college, careers, and life.

With TTIPS funding, Harris Elementary will implement the AVID Elementary Program offered through AVID National. AVID Elementary is part of the vertical team's effort to create college- and career-ready students through strengthening vertical team alignment and fostering coordination of programs. It is an embedded, sequential academic skills program intended for non-elective, multi-subject, self-contained classrooms. Student success skills of speaking, listening, self-advocacy, and study habits are focused on in the first year of a new program. In year two, the program emphasizes partnerships (articulations, transitions, connections, and communication) and WICORizing lesson plans: that is infusing instruction with writing, inquiry, collaboration, organization, and reading practice. AVID Elementary will be paired with a Club AVID after school program through which students will receive access to between one and three hours per week of tutoring provided by an AVID tutor, two hours of hands-on exploratory math and science educational opportunities, and one hour of college awareness programming each week. Club AVID is organized according to best practices in informal science education. The intent of Club AVID is to encourage students to develop hands-on opportunities for math and science exploration, to promote understanding of math and science concepts transferrable to different learning environments, to engage students in science reasoning, to promote reflecting on science and math, to increase student engagement with science and math and identifying with a scientific enterprise.

In addition, Harris Elementary will support a stronger, school wide Response to Intervention (RtI) with TTIPS funds. RtI is the practice of providing high-quality instruction/intervention matched to student needs and using learning rate over time and level of performance to inform educational decisions. The RtI approach provides very early intervention to reduce the chance that a student would be inappropriately identified as having a learning disability and also attempts to put an end to the "wait to fail" model (Stuebing et. al, 2004). Interventions are divided into three tiers.

Tier I is quality classroom instruction in the usual education setting (Vaughn & Fuchs, 2003). In Tier 1, based on assessment data, the teacher evaluates and makes adjustments to his/her instruction in order to meet the individual needs of students. (Vaughn & Fuchs, 2003). Struggling learners are identified and provided interventions at increasing levels of intensity at either Tier 2 or Tier 3. These interventions are provided by the classroom teacher, reading specialist, and/ or special education teachers. Educational decisions for the children are made in team meetings and are based on ongoing data collected through progress monitoring. The goal is to prevent learning and behavioral problems

in children through early identification and specialized instruction. Tier 1 is provided to all students and is comprised of four main components: 1) instruction aligned to state and local goals; 2) research-based instructional strategies; 3) ongoing school-wide progress monitoring to determine instructional needs; and 4) on-going professional development to provide teachers the necessary tools and strategies to effectively teach all children. A strong curriculum foundation underlies Tier I instruction. In mathematics, Harris will adopt a balanced approach that includes number sense, problem solving, basic fact fluency, computation, and vocabulary development. All math lessons will include: number sense, problem solving, basic fact fluency, computation, and vocabulary development. District math curriculum documents will outline required state standards, help guide whole group, small group, and individualized instruction. Curriculum is embedded with the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS), as well as standards and expectations from the National Council for Teaching Mathematics (NCTM) and Pre-Kindergarten Curriculum Guidelines created by TEA. Instructional strategies include centers, daily and weekly problem-solving using Cognitive Guided Instruction (CGI) techniques, various fluency and spiraling activities, vocabulary instruction, questioning strategies based on Bloom's Taxonomy, cooperative learning, and children's literature. Teachers differentiate instruction for struggling learners as well as English Language Learners (ELLs). In science, teachers adhere to the exploratory nature of scientific investigation through the use of the 5 E Method (engage, explore, explain, elaborate, and evaluate), developed in 1989 by the Biological Science Curriculum Study Group. Curriculum is designed to meet state-approved science strands which include properties, patterns, and models, as well as systems, the nature of science, and consistency and change using a constructivist method of teaching. Teachers will use a variety of instructional strategies, including journaling, group discussion, field experiences, labs, centers, projects, and demonstrations. As with mathematics instruction, differentiated instruction is provided. Harris will follow the National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) ten thematic strands that form the basis for social studies standards. The social studies program will include exploration of culture and cultural diversity; the ways human beings view themselves in time and over time; people, places, and environments; individual development and identity; interactions among individuals, groups, and institutions; how people create and change structures of power, authority, and governance; and how people organize for the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services. Instructors will review these ten themes and hot to make them relevant to the children and the community. Through the use of community circles, peace tables, cumulative projects, research projects, mapping, artifact boxes, and photographs, students will experience interaction social studies learning. Tier 2 uses of research-based instructional strategies that are more explicit and have a high probability of enhancing student achievement for all students in subject areas and grade levels. The third component of RtI is a strong school-wide progress monitoring system. Recommended school-wide progress monitoring and screenings for reading are the Texas Primary Reading Inventory (TPRI) and the Dynamic Indicators of Beginning Early Literacy Skills (DIBELS). These assessments are used as both benchmarks and progress monitoring tools. The TPRI and DIBELS are given at the beginning of the year and middle of the year. The information is used to place students in Tier 2, as necessary. This support is highly structured, individualized, and systematic. The intervention is used with fidelity in order to make sound decisions. DIBELS is also used as a progress-monitoring tool on a weekly basis and used to determine the effectiveness of the Tiered intervention. Tier 3 is the most intensive intervention and support provided on our campus. These students are both regular education students and students in special education. The special education teacher and instructional specialist provide this level of support. The fidelity of the treatment is recorded weekly. Ongoing professional development is provided to all the interventionists. For Tier 3 level intervention, data have been collected for at least 18 weeks and a referral for a learning disabilities evaluation can be made. Professional development is a component of a solid Tier program. Professional development must be directly tied to the instructional strategies and interventions used in all 3 tiers. Teachers must be provided time to practice the instructional strategies with a lead teacher or instructional specialist. SIG elementary schools will use a 3-Tier Reading Model to address the district's Balanced Literacy Approach to reading. The 3-Tier Model is a prevention model that is aimed at catching students "before they fall behind" and providing support they need throughout the first four years of schooling. It is a process for delivering quality reading instruction by emphasizing early intervention for struggling readers based on early literacy assessments. Tier 1 instruction will be provided by the regular classroom teacher. The primary resources being used by the teachers will be McMillian-McGraw

Hill Treasures, and "Reading A to Z." Tier 2 instruction will be provided by the regular classroom teacher with support from the reading specialist and the speech and language specialist.

SIG schools will pilot the DIBELS as a measure to monitor reading progress. The Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills (DIBELS) are a set of standardized, individually administered measures of early literacy development. They are designed to be short (one minute) fluency measures used to regularly monitor the development of pre-reading and early reading skills. The measures were developed upon the essential early literacy domains discussed in both the National Reading Panel (2000) and National Research Council (1998) reports to assess student development of phonological awareness, alphabetic understanding, and automaticity and fluency with the code. Each measure has been thoroughly researched and demonstrated to be reliable and valid indicators of early literacy development and predictive of later reading proficiency to aid in the early identification of students who are not progressing as expected. When used as recommended, the results can be used to evaluate individual student development as well as provide grade-level feedback toward validated instructional objectives. Students who are not meeting benchmarks measures on the DIBELS, TPRI and DRA will receive Tier 2 reading intervention. Resources and programs are chosen based on the needs of the students. Students who show signs of a speech or language difficulty are provided interventions. Supplemental materials for Tier 2 intervention include "Wilson Reading System FUN-dations for K-3," "Phono-Graphix," "Voyager," "Great Leaps," "Reading Readiness," "Read Naturally," "REWARDS," and "Responsive Reading." Ongoing progress monitoring of all Tier 2 students will be provided using DIBELS. Based on this data, adaptations will be made. Tier 3 instruction is provided by the special education teacher or reading specialist. Supplemental resources which can be used by the reading specialist include "Wilson Reading" and "SRA Reading Mastery," as well as appropriate Tier 2 resources. Programs and materials are chosen based on individual student needs. The programs consist of scientific-based reading instruction and curriculum emphasizing the five critical elements of beginning reading (Phonemic Awareness, Phonics and Word Study, Fluency, Vocabulary, and Comprehension).

Harris Elementary will support and strengthen Positive Behavior Support (PBS) on campus and will incorporate Social-Emotional Learning. SEL will be embedded in all instructional preparation in the school because developing students' academic skills is not enough to foster rich learning; teachers must also develop students' social and emotional skills. SEL is the process of acquiring the skills to recognize and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, establish positive relationships, make responsible decisions, and handle challenging situations effectively (CASEL, 2006). The U.S. Department of Labor identified sixteen skills necessary for the workforce in the 21st century. Of these "21st century skills," eight of them included social and emotional competencies: listening, decision-making, problem-solving, personal responsibility, self-esteem, sociability, self-management, integrity and honesty (SCANS Report, 1999). Using a SEL curriculum developed at the University of Texas at Austin, and a curriculum resource, Second Step, students will work on defined social and emotional skills.

To further ensure more students are well-prepared to participate in academically rigorous college preparatory course work at the secondary and post secondary level, Harris elementary will implement strategic supports for English Language Learners to include support from the district level on data analysis and providing data-driven instruction with TTIPS funds. The AISD Office of Bilingual Education/ESL will provide Harris with access to data and feedback to inform instruction and meet the needs of ELL students. This includes TAKS, TAKS-LAT, TELPAS, LAS, LINKS, ITBS, and periodic benchmark data. Planning based on data will occur in collaboration with representatives from the Office of Curriculum and Instruction and the Office of Special Education. Campus staff and District curriculum leaders will follow the Data Wise Improvement Process, an eight step model to improve teacher and learning, as described in the January 2006 issue of the Harvard Education Letter: organize work collaboratively, build assessment literacy, create data overview, dig into student data, examine instruction, develop an action plan, and act and assess.

Specific innovative and engaging content area supports will include: the campus 20+ book challenge, digital storytelling, vertical team book buddies, the 400-word-a-year challenge, and areas and state writing contents. For mathematics, Harris will provide ELL students interventions/acceleration focused on mathematical student misconceptions; opportunities to participate in the Mathematics Pentathlon and Tabula Digita games and tournaments, math achievement academies, and will use technology for student-created tutorials. Content area language acquisition supports for Social Studies will include History Alive!—levels one and two—National History Day competitions, and the opportunity to participate in mock elections and for science, ELLs will have targeted field-based experiences and access to outdoor classrooms.

Research on effective pedagogy for ELLs indicates one of the keys to success is a consistent focus on content area language acquisition. This approach emphasizes the need to intentionally make content comprehensible while developing academic language skills for ELLs. Because vocabulary development is the greatest predictor of reading comprehension across all content areas (language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies), AISD utilizes a K-12 program for academic vocabulary development. Teachers use a variety of strategies that support comprehension for ELLs: pre-teaching vocabulary, providing sentence stems, visuals for classroom vocabulary and academic concepts, models and manipulatives, same language peer instruction as needed, verbal cues, adaptive texts, and graphic organizers. Professional development for instructional staff regarding support for ELLs will include: training on English Language Proficiency Standards, academic vocabulary, revised curriculum frameworks, data analysis, RtI, literacy across the curriculum, and best practices for rigorous and relevant instruction in specific content areas. In addition, Harris Elementary will implement the district's nationally-recognized strategic compensation program, REACH, to recruit, staff, and retain teachers at Harris Elementary. Harris Elementary will follow the timeline established by TEA in the Texas Transformation Project documents for implementation of a transformation model under the extended implementation timeline. The timeline for additional activities that the school will implement, but are not required components under TTIPS, will be incorporated into this timeline. A list of additional activities is included in Section 4.B, Part 3, Section D of this proposal. Fall 2010: Complete District Snapshot Spring 2011: Complete comprehensive needs assessment based on campus snapshot, replace principal, if applicable, replace or retain key staff, identify community partners, and establish designated personnel to Foster Transformation Project Summer 2011: Identify teacher-leaders, attend summer training, develop plan to recruit/retain quality staff, develop job-embedded professional development plan for year I, and complete first 90-Day Action Plan Fall 2011: Implement school wide Positive Behavioral Support (PBS), Begin providing enhanced social service supports, teacher-leaders begin collecting observation data to guide professional development and student interventions, begin online courses, and review progress toward goals in 90-day action plan Spring 2012: Review behavioral data and PEIMS to analyze PBS implementation, implement targeted professional development based on classroom observation data and student data, and write next 90-Day Plan Summer 2012: Attend summer training, review and revise professional development plans, analyze progress toward goals in previous 90-Day Action Plan, teacher-leaders selection action research topics, write new 90-Day Plan, Develop a plan for classroom interventions for PBS, and attend NSDC Summer Conference Fall 2012: Re-administer campus snapshot, implement revised and updated professional development plan, begin action research projects, continue online courses, and write new 90-Day Action Plan Spring 2013: Finalize action research projects, collect data for PBS evaluation, and write new 90-Day Action Plan Summer 2013: Present action research, conduct intense data review and process evaluation, create sustainability plan, and develop plan to continue use of teacher-leaders as an instructional resource

This waiver allows the campus two years to effectively implement the selected turnaround or restart model of reform without additional statutory school improvement interventions being required. <input type="checkbox"/> Implementing a school wide program in a Tier I or Tier II Title I participating school that does not meet the 40 percent poverty eligibility threshold. This waiver allows a Tier I Title I campus that otherwise does not qualify to operate a School wide program to do so in order to implement the Tier I reform model selected.

Schedule #4C—Performance Assessment and Evaluation
Part 1: Component Description. By submitting this application, the applicant agrees to comply with any reporting and evaluation requirements that TEA may establish and to submit the reports in the format TEA requests. (Response limited to one page each, font size no smaller than 9 pt, Arial or Verdana)
Section A: Ongoing Monitoring/Continuous Improvement - Describe the LEA/campus' process for providing ongoing monitoring of grant activities to ensure continuous improvement
To comply with reporting and evaluation requirements established by TEA and to provide staff with information necessary to support effective program implementation decisions, AISD staff will engage in ongoing monitoring towards continuous improvement. Initially, AISD's Department of Program Evaluation (DPE) staff will provide program staff with baseline data pertaining to articulated program performance indicators for program planning and decision-making purposes. These following baseline data will be provided: a) longitudinal TAKS data, b) preliminary results from the Spring 2010 TAKS tests, c) attendance rates for each 6-week grading period, d) core course passing rates for each 6-week grading period, e) discipline rates for each 6-week grading period in the 2009-2010 school year, and c) results from the district's 2009-2010 Student and Staff Climate Surveys, the Parent Survey, and the High School Exit Survey. To closely monitor student progress, program staff and teachers will receive ongoing training to access and effectively use the district's Instructional Management System (AIMS) that provides online access to Instructional Planning Guides (IPGs) linked to TAKS objectives. AIMS contains longitudinal test information for every AISD student including benchmark tests, TAKS, and primary reading assessments (i.e., DRA, TPRI, Tejas Lee, Dibbels). Finally, AIMS is linked to many other district information systems regarding student discipline, special education, English language learner support, teacher professional development, technology applications, etc. Additionally, the district is supported by Region XIII and the INOVA process. In this process, school and program staff will use INOVA, an extended student learning data analysis tool, increase their understanding of student learning and make decisions using the data. It is expected that the monitoring of student progress will be improved as the staff put together multiple sources of data for district and campus improvement. Each six-week grading period, the Office of Accountability provides district and school administrators with campus-level dashboard reports to assist staff in monitoring student performance outcomes throughout the year. The dashboard reports provide attendance rates core course passing rates, and discipline rates. These reports were developed to monitor leading indicators towards high school graduation. It is expected that these reports will help them to make strategic decisions to support students and teachers as needed, well before the end of the school year. As the data related to identified performance measures are updated in district systems, evaluation and program staff will summarize and communicate the results to district and campus staff. These measures may include course enrollment/passing rates, TAKS/SAT/ACT scores/passing rates, professional development data, classroom observation data, and district/campus survey results. Overall, it is expected that project staff and district decision-makers will use the information and work collaboratively to assess the progress of students, to evaluate the degree to which effective instructional practices are being adopted by teachers, and to make program implementation decisions. DPE staff will analyze data pertaining to articulated performance indicators to create evaluation reports for both TEA and AISD. Evaluation reports produced for this grant by DPE will be distributed to the District's Board of Trustees, superintendent, central office administrators, campus principals, and program staff. The reports also will be posted to the district's website.

Schedule #4C—Performance Assessment and Evaluation
Part 1: Component Description. By submitting this application, the applicant agrees to comply with any reporting and evaluation requirements that TEA may establish and to submit the reports in the format TEA requests. (Response limited to one page each, font size no smaller than 9 pt, Arial or Verdana)
Section B: Formative Evaluation- Describe the LEA/campus' process for formative evaluation, including how the results of the evaluation will be used to improve the grant program
DPE and program staff will engage in a formative evaluation of the program using a participatory process to increase the use of evaluation results. DPE staff will help staff to identify and use high quality data sources and materials related to program goals and objectives to aid program planning and development. These sources include the use of AIMS, INOVA, and district web-based reports regarding "on-track" to graduate status, course failures, student discipline, student leaver reports, etc. DPE staff will help staff to interpret and use district- and campus-level Student and Staff Climate Surveys, the Parent Survey, and the High School Exit Survey for campus improvement purposes. DPE staff also may analyze campus program data as specific requests are made by district and campus staff. For example, how many students who participated in Pre-AP, AP, or AVID classes met HERC standard on the TAKS test or what were the graduation and postsecondary enrollment rates for the AVID students compared with their peers?
DPE staff will regularly participate in program planning and support meetings to provide data for program decision-making and progress monitoring. As the program is implemented, DPE and program staff will document and report the stages of implementation to ensure program fidelity and to make ongoing improvement decisions. DPE staff will assist program staff in the use of district information systems to provide "real time" access to student data (e.g., AIMS, INOVA, campus dashboard reports, etc.) and to encourage ongoing monitoring of student progress. DPE staff also may share program information with other district decision-making groups interested in similar goals and objectives to facilitate the continuing development of a system-wide student support network. All of these efforts will provide program staff with a comprehensive understanding of their own program efforts and enable them to work efficiently and effectively with others in their school and across the district.

Schedule #4C—Performance Assessment and Evaluation
Part 1: Component Description. By submitting this application, the applicant agrees to comply with any reporting and evaluation requirements that TEA may establish and to submit the reports in the format TEA requests. (Response limited to one page each, font size no smaller than 9 pt, Arial or Verdana)
Section C: Qualitative and Quantitative Data Collection Methods- Describe the LEA/campus' process for data collection methods to be implemented and 1) how the data will be disaggregated; 2) used to improve instruction; and 3) obtain continuous improvement results
DPE will collect and analyze multiple quantitative and qualitative data to comprehensively evaluate the program at each campus. In many cases, district information systems provide readily available web-based reports for district and campus use. In other cases, DPE staff will use district information systems to collect, analyze, and report data pertaining to articulated campus performance measures. These measures may include course enrollment and passing rates, TAKS scale scores and passing rates, SAT/ACT Exam taking and passing, AP and dual credit enrollment, grade level promotion rates, graduation plans (State Recommended High School Program/Distinguished Achievement Program), completion rates, dropout rates, postsecondary enrollment rates, and teacher professional development data.
DPE also collects survey data to support instructional improvement and student learning across the district. Each fall semester, the AISD Staff Climate Survey is administered to AISD campus staff. The survey was developed from the research-based Organizational Climate Inventory (OCI; Hoy et al., 2002.) and measures a variety of school factors that are related to student achievement. The AISD Parent Survey was designed to monitor the relationship between campus staff and parents. The survey results provide campus staff with feedback about how parents feel about their treatment by school staff, the school's educational environment, and their own involvement in the school. The AISD Student Climate Survey is administered to all students in grades 3 through 11 during the spring semester. The survey is designed to measure student perceptions regarding major aspects of the school culture. Since 2003, the AISD High School Exit Survey has been administered online to seniors in every AISD high school during the spring semester. General topics areas include: high school experiences, postsecondary intentions and family support, campus climate, civic engagement, instruction and technology, postsecondary preparation and advising, and open-ended comments. Finally, the district Employee Coordinated Survey is administered each spring and contains department and program specific questions to support program implementation and improvement decisions.
Regardless of the source, the data will be disaggregated in multiple ways to enable district and campus staff to use the results to make campus improvement decisions for increased student outcomes. The data summaries will compare the campus-level results with district performance and the performance of other individual campuses in the district. Where possible, campus-level data may be compared with state and/or national outcomes. Within a campus, the data will be disaggregated by student groups and include ethnicity, gender, English language learning status, economic disadvantage status, and special education status. Teacher data may be disaggregated by teacher experience and participation in professional learning opportunities.
Additional qualitative data may include student, teacher, and parent focus groups scheduled at the end of the year, field notes, and meeting agendas. Within the evaluation, varied data analysis techniques will be used. Descriptive and inferential statistics will describe the characteristics of students and teachers, illustrate levels of program participation, and summarize outcomes in relation to the articulated performance measures. Content analysis techniques will be used to identify important details, themes, and patterns with qualitative data. Results will be triangulated to determine the effectiveness of the project's implementation and outcomes for its participants, to verify the consistency of data, and to clarify results.
As results become available, DPE staff will provide the results to campus principals, the Chief Schools Officer, and other SIG program staff. DPE staff will provide assistance in the interpretation of results for campus- and district-level decision-making. The campus will use the data to identify strategies for continuous improvement in discussions among the Campus Improvement Team, the principal's cabinet, department chairs, and instructional specialists. In addition, the principal will modify teacher and principal growth plans, schedule classroom walk throughs, and conduct learning walks with the instructional team based on data analysis.

Part 2: Process for Development of Performance Goals
Describe the process to be implemented to develop the campus' performance goals. Include the groups participating in the development of the goals. Responses are limited to two pages , front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana).
The process for developing Campus Performance Goals is tied to the completion of a Comprehensive Needs Assessment with the input of a number of community and campus stakeholders and the development of a Campus Improvement Plan that identifies performance goals for the upcoming school year. State and federal law require schools to complete a Comprehensive Needs Assessment (CNA) as part of the institution's planning, budgeting, and decision making process. The Texas Education Code (TEC) Sections 11.252(a) (1-2) and 11.253 mandated that the campus plans must "include provisions for a comprehensive needs assessment addressing student performance on the student achievement indicators, and other appropriate measures of performance. . . Campus-level committees must assess the academic achievement for each student in the school using the student achievement indicator system." Likewise, schools receiving Title 1 funds to operate a school wide program, as Harris Elementary School does, must participate and complete a CNA of the entire school, to include migrant students, and provide information on how all students are fairing on meeting a rigorous and challenging academic content and achievement standards. The CNA drives the district's use of NCLB funds and enables AISD and Harris Elementary School to monitor and assess the impact of federally, Title 1 funded programs on campus. Harris Elementary School has participated in a campus-based CNA and will continue to do so, as campus and AISD staff study the campus to identify needs of students. Based on the most recent CNA of Harris Elementary School, AISD will implement a Transformation Model under the TTIPS program, if funded. The CNA Harris completes is based on the NCLB CNA format, a five step process linking the CNA to the review and development of campus/district improvement plans. Each campus Title 1 point of contact is provided directions for completing the CNA at annual Title 1 Point of Contact meetings, the latest ones held in April and January of 2010. The five step process asks campus administration and staff and the Campus Advisory Committee, consisting of staff members, parents, students, non-profit organizations, and community members, to work collaboratively to establish the goals and the purpose of the CNA, to ensure that there will be multiple stakeholders involved, to share the purpose and goals of the CNA with all stakeholders, and to identify short and long-term timelines for completing the CNA. In the 2009 to 2010 school year, the Harris CAC consisted of the Principal, the Academic Director, five parents, six professional staff members, two students, one community representative, and one business community representative. Sub-committees are established to explore specific areas that must be addressed in the CNA, such as collecting student demographics, student achievement information, etc. And data collection and analysis is supported by AISD's Department of Program Evaluation. As described in previous sections of this application, DPE staff will provide formative data reports that will be routinely generated to guide the work of the sub-committees and respond to ad hoc data requests as deemed necessary by this group. The CNA team determines which types of data will be considered and analyzed by the Committee to develop the school profile. When working with campus/District data, participants must identify what data to collect, how to organize it in such a manner that it is useful in their planning work, what data collection tools required, if any, how the committee can ensure data is kept confidential and FERPA is not violated, and must develop a process for ensuring that subcommittees working on the CNA are making data-driven instructional and administrative decisions. From this data, the CNA committee determines areas of priority and summarizes campus needs, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the campus/district and its representative groups, what evidence supports the strengths/needs, what are the campus and district priorities, and what is there to learn about the campus and district, making necessary connections between all programs, when possible, to ensure services are aligned, not duplicated. The work completed in the CNA process is connected to the Campus Improvement Plan (CIP) development and review process. The findings of the CNA are incorporated into the CIP and are reflected in summary statements. The strengths identified in the CNA are addressed in the CIPs for campus and district, and administrators identify strategies and

Include the groups participating in the development of the goals. Responses are limited to two pages, front side only, with a font size no smaller than 9 point (Arial or Verdana). activities to further build on these strengths. Likewise, any weaknesses identified in the CNA are included in the CIP, as staff work to identify activities and/or strategies to address these issues and improve student outcomes. All priorities and needs identified in the CIP, which are clearly connected to the CNA, must correlate with justifications for NCLB program expenditures. To ensure that strengths, weaknesses, strategies and activities outlined in the CIP are compliant with NCLB program regulations, campus send a copy of their CIP and the work completed during the CNA process to the Director of State and Federal Accountability, who either identifies staff within the Office of State and Federal Accountability to review or assigned appropriate staff to do so. Performance goals for the campus during the school year are developed based on current performance data provided by the Department of Program Evaluation used in the CNA process and in developing the CIP. Targets for estimated desired progress on each goal are included in the CIP documents. Harris Elementary School will continue to work through the yearly required Campus Needs Assessment process and to develop a Campus Improvement Plan based upon a thorough needs assessment involving as many stakeholders as possible. Ultimately, the performance goals established by each campus within the district are aligned with the goals established in the AISD Strategic Plan, 2010 to 2015 that establishes a road map for achieving high student performance and fiscal accountability for AISD over the next five years. On December 14, 2009 the AISD Board of Trustees adopted the Strategic Plan to guide the district through 2015. It was the product of months of work by the community and the educators of AISD. It provides direction for our instruction, curriculum, budgeting, staffing, and partnerships for the next five years and focuses on the goals and strategies that will best prepare all AISD students for college, career, and life in a globally competitive environment. The plan identifies district goals and measureable outcomes and targets associated with each. These are summarized below. Goal One: All students will perform at or above grade level, as measured by passing TAKS. Targets for 2015 for goal one are: increasing reading, writing, and social studies achievement for all students who have been in AISD for at least three consecutive years to a passing rate of 98%; Increase reading, writing, and social studies for students who have been within the district for less than three years to 90%; For students who have attended three or more years within the district, increase math and science achievement to a passing rate of 90%; For those who have attended AISD schools less than three years, increase math rates to 86% and science rates to 85%. Goal Two: Eliminate achievement gaps among groups of students. Targets for 2015 are: Eliminate reading, writing and social studies achievement gap for students having attended an AISD school for at least three years; Dramatically reduce mathematics and science achievement gaps to no more than ten points for these students; Reduce reading, writing, and social studies achievement gaps for students who have not attended an AISD school for three years to no more than eight points; Reduce math and science achievement gaps for these students to no more than ten points. Goal Three: All students will graduate ready for college, career, and life in a globally competitive economy. Six measures will be monitored to assess progress toward this goal: graduation rates, college readiness, TAKS writing scores, enrollment in Advanced Placement courses, and performance in Advanced Placement courses. For each of these measures, the 2015 targets are set at the level of the highest group. For example, White students had the highest graduation rate (90%), so the target for all groups is to meet or exceed that rate. Proposed targets for college readiness and postsecondary enrollments are set in the same manner.

The financial management system records will identify adequately the source and application of funds and will contain information pertaining to grant awards, authorizations, obligations, unobligated balances, assets, outlays (i.e., expenditures), income, and interest. Fiscal control and accounting procedures will permit the tracing of funds to a level of expenditure adequate to establish that funds have been used in accordance with the approved grant application. The applicant agrees to maintain effective control over and accountability for all funds, property, and other assets. Public school districts, open enrollment charter schools, and regional education service centers in Texas must comply with the accounting requirements in the Financial Accounting and Reporting (FAR) module of the Financial Accountability System Resource Guide, Texas Education Agency (34 CFR 74.21; 34 CFR 80.20; TEA Financial Accountability System Resource Guide).

These records and accounts shall be retained by Contractor and made available for programmatic or financial audit by Agency and by others authorized by law or regulation to make such an audit for a period of not less than five years from the date of completion of the contract project or the date of the receipt by Agency of Contractor's final claim for payment or final expenditure report in connection with this contract, whichever is later. If an audit has been announced, the records shall be retained until such audit has been completed.

Contractor further agrees to cooperate fully with the State Auditor's Office or its successor in the conduct of the audit or investigation, including providing all records requested. Contractor will ensure that this clause concerning the authority to audit funds received indirectly by subcontractors through Contractor and the requirements to cooperate is included in any subcontract it awards.

Contractor agrees to maintain written agreements with all officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and subcontractors engaged by Contractor for the Contract Project, granting Contractor rights sufficient to support the performance and grant of rights to TEA by Contractor. AA. Submission of Audit Reports to TEA: Grantees which are public school districts and open enrollment charter schools agree to submit the required annual audit report, including the reporting package required under OMB Circular A-133, if an audit is required to be conducted in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, to the TEA Division of School Financial Audits in the time and manner requested by the Agency.

A copy of such audit shall also be submitted to TEA if the summary schedule of prior audit findings reported the status of any audit findings relating to any federal awards provided by TEA.

A nonprofit organization or university/college grantee shall provide written notification to TEA that an audit was conducted in accordance with OMB Circular A-133 when the schedule of findings and questioned costs disclosed no audit findings related to any federal awards provided by TEA or when the summary schedule of prior audit findings did not report on the status of any prior audit findings related to any federal awards provided by TEA. Nonprofit organizations (other than charter schools) and universities/colleges shall submit the audit report to the TEA Division of Discretionary Grants. Audit reports must be submitted to TEA within 30 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Failure to submit a copy of the audit to TEA could result in a reduction of funds paid to the grantee, a refund to TEA, termination of the grant, and/or ineligibility to receive additional grant awards from TEA.

BB. Federal Rules, Laws, and Regulations That Apply to all Federal Programs: Contractor shall be subject to and shall abide by all federal laws, rules and regulations pertaining to the contract project, including but not limited to:

- E. The applicant will cooperate in carrying out any evaluation of each such program conducted by or for the Texas Education Agency, the Secretary of Education or other federal officials.

- H. The applicant will maintain such records, provide such information, and afford access to the records as the Agency (after consultation with the Governor) or the Secretary may find necessary to carry out the Agency's or the Secretary's duties.
- I. Before the application was submitted, the applicant afforded a reasonable opportunity for public comment on the application and has considered such comment.
- J. Gun-Free Schools Act: The local education agency assures that it is in compliance with Section 37.118(e) of the Texas Education Code, which requires expulsion of a student who brings to school or possesses at school a firearm as defined by 18 U.S.C. Section 2891 [pursuant to the requirements in P. L. 107-110, Section 4141(d)(1)]. In addition, the local educational agency certifies that it has a policy requiring referral to the criminal justice or juvenile delinquency system of any student who brings a firearm or weapon to school [P. L. 107-110, Section 4141(h)(1)].
- K. Student Records Transfer: The local educational agency shall ensure that a student's records and, if applicable, a student's Individualized education program as defined in section 602(11) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, are transferred to a charter school upon the transfer of the student to the charter school, and to another public school upon the transfer of the student from a charter school to another public school, in accordance with applicable state law (P. Grantees must move rapidly, while using prudent grant management practices, to develop plans for using funds, consistent with the ARRA’s reporting and accountability requirements, and promptly begin spending funds to help drive the nation’s economic recovery. All ARRA funds must be separately accounted for and tracked in their obligation, expenditure, and reporting.

B.
