

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) adopts the repeal of §61.1025, concerning Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS) data and reporting standards. The repeal is adopted without changes to the proposed text as published in the March 21, 2025 issue of the Texas Register (50 TexReg 2019) and will not be republished. The repeal relocates the existing standards to new 19 TAC §55.1001 with no changes to the content of the rule.

REASONED JUSTIFICATION: Section 61.1025 outlines data and reporting standards for PEIMS. The repeal of §61.1025 moves the existing language to new §55.1001. The relocation is necessary due to a comprehensive reorganization of 19 TAC Chapter 61.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS AND AGENCY RESPONSES: The public comment period on the proposal began March 21, 2025, and ended April 21, 2025. No public comments were received.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY. The repeal is adopted under Texas Education Code (TEC), §48.008, which establishes the Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS), a system school districts shall use to report information to the agency; and TEC, §48.009, which specifies certain required reporting by school districts through PEIMS.

CROSS REFERENCE TO STATUTE. The repeal implements Texas Education Code, §48.008 and §48.009.
