Rationale: The video originally linked has been updated so it has been replaced with the new version of the video. The video: Creativity, Copyright, and Fair Use video by Common Sense Education has been replaced with the video: Copyright and Fair Use Animation video by Common Sense Education.

Screenshot of Currently Adopted Content

The screenshot shows a video player interface. At the top, there is a green header with the word "Display" in white. Below the header, the video title "Copyright and Fair Use Animation" is displayed in a light gray font, followed by a small gray circle and the text "video by Common Sense Education". To the right of the title and source is a share icon. Below the video player, there is a text box containing the instruction: "7. Play the Copyright and Fair Use Animation video by Common Sense Education. Then, ask the following questions."

Assurances

These assurances apply to all material submitted to update content in state-adopted instructional materials.

Publisher acknowledges that:

- There will be no additional cost to the state;
- The new material meets the applicable Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS), English Language Proficiency Standards (EIPS), or Texas Prekindergarten Guidelines (TPG) and is free from factual errors; and
- The updates in the new edition do not affect the product's coverage of Texas Education Code (TEC), §28.002(h), as it relates to that specific subject and grade level or course(s), understanding the importance of patriotism and functioning productively in a free-enterprise society with appreciation for the basic democratic values of our state and national heritage.
