

Instructional Materials Assurances Statement – Innovative Courses

The 19 Texas Administrative Code \(TAC\) §74.27\(a\)\(4\)\(D\) requires that innovative course applications include resources to be used as part of the course. Applicants will evaluate all included recommended resources to verify compliance as listed below in the innovative course resource guidelines. Please email a signed copy (pdf) of this form to Innovative.Courses@tea.texas.gov by Friday, September 12, 2025.

Innovative Course Resource Guidelines

All innovative course resources must meet the following criteria to be included as part of an innovative course:

The resource is appropriate.

- The resource is free from any and all sexually explicit material as defined in Texas Education Code \(TEC\) §35.0021. If the resource includes any material that may be deemed sexually relevant as defined in TEC §35.0021, districts and open-enrollment charters follow the procedures outlined in TEC §35.005 to obtain written parental consent.
- The resource protects students from obscene or harmful content as defined in TEC §31.1011\(a\)\(1\)\(B\).

The resource protects student data privacy.

- The resource, if online, must comply with all requirements regarding student information as listed under TEC §32 Subchapter D.
- The resource adheres to the requirements of TEC §28.002\(b\)\(1-4\).
- The resource adheres with the requirements of TEC §28.002\(h\).

The resource adheres to the requirements of TEC §28.0022.

- The resource, if determined to be potentially controversial as defined by TEC §28.0022, adheres to the instructional requirements detailed in this same subchapter.
- The resource adheres to the instructional prohibitions of TEC §28.0022\(a\)\(4\).

Acknowledgement

By signing this document, the applicant affirms that all resources included in their respective innovative course application have been fully reviewed and adhere to all requirements referenced in this document.
