Recap of topics covered:
- K-12 Rapid Testing Project
  - In partnership with the Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM) and the Department of State Health Services (DSHS), TEA released guidance for districts and private schools to opt-in to rapid testing.
  - More information can be found on the TEA coronavirus website and the TDEM rapid testing website.
    - Both websites includes several resources and templates to support implementation of the testing program.
    - Interested public schools and private schools need to meet our eligibility requirements in order to submit respective opt-in applications; however, it is important to note that there is not a deadline to apply.
    - Regarding notification and reporting requirements, any campus that participates in our K-12 COVID-19 testing project will be required to report the total numbers of tests offered, provided and the number of positive tests each week that they administer tests.
      - These reports will be submitted in the same weekly submission that campuses are currently doing for COVID cases on campus.
      - We anticipate these reports of tests on campus will be due no sooner than November 16, but we will ask that districts submit retroactively for tests your campuses perform between now and then.
    - Separately, DSHS has been reporting positive cases at the district level on their website weekly. Starting November 20, the reporting will transition to reporting at the campus level. Public release of the data will also shift to Fridays instead of Thursdays.
