INTRODUCTION

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) would like to extend appreciation to Sam Rayburn Independent School District (ISD): for their efforts, attention, and time committed to the completion of the review process.

The TEA has developed a monitoring approach that reviews compliance-based indicators while also looking for best practices. In commitment to the approach, the cyclical monitoring report will provide the results of the LEA’s compliance review related to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and federal and state statutes, a summary of data related to Results-Driven Accountability (RDA), State Performance Plan (SPP), and Significant Disproportionality (SD), recommend targeted technical assistance and support for LEAs related to special education, and highlight best practices of LEAs that demonstrate success.

CYCLICAL MONITORING

The TEA conducts cyclical reviews of all LEAs statewide over six years. The purpose of cyclical monitoring is to support positive outcomes for students with disabilities and to determine compliance with special education regulations.

LEAs are required to submit artifacts and/or sources of evidence for compliance and promising practices review in the following areas:

- Child Find/Evaluation/FAPE
- IEP Development
- IEP Content
- IEP Implementation
- State Assessment
- Properly Constituted ARD Committees
- Transition

2019–2020 CYCLICAL REVIEW PARENT, TEACHER, ADMINISTRATOR INTERVIEWS/SURVEY

Staff and Family Surveys

On December 7, 2019, the TEA Review and Support team received 51 surveys during the comprehensive desk review. Respondents to the staff and family survey included parents/guardians, general education teachers, special education teachers, evaluation staff, and administration staff (district and campus). The Review and Support surveys focused on the following review areas:

- Communication strategies
- Inclusion of staff in curriculum planning

This survey was approved by the Texas Education Agency’s data governance board. Participation in this survey was both voluntary and anonymous. No data was collected identifying a name so that individual responses cannot be linked to any respondent. Participants were given the option to stop the survey at any time.

Strengths

Based on results of the policy review and student file review, along with data collected from LEA staff and family surveys, the Review and Support team identified the following strengths for Sam Rayburn Independent School District (ISD):

- Notices, phone calls, and emails were the most effective methods to reach out to parents, families, organizations, and other stakeholders concerning special education services.
- Over 80% of teachers note special education staff is present in curriculum training and planning with content and grade level teachers.

Considerations

Based on results of the policy review and student file review, along with data collected from LEA staff and family surveys, the Review and Support team identified the following considerations for Sam Rayburn Independent School District (ISD): :

- Courses of study/four-year plans are developed annually and shared with students and families as part of postsecondary transition planning; ensure these courses of study are included within the IEP document.
- Ensure state assessment interventions are in place during the special education referral process in the initial IEP as an Intensive Program of Instruction

Technical Assistance

As a result of monitoring, the TEA has identified the following technical assistance resources to support Sam Rayburn Independent School District (ISD): engaging in universal support as determined by the RDA performance level data and artifacts within the compliance review:
