

Summary of Changes to Chapters 1–11 of the 2022 Accountability Manual

Changes were made to the manual since published as proposed. The adopted manual includes the following changes either to provide clarification or in response to public comment.

Chapter 1 was revised in response to public comment to clarify the processing of retests, processing of SAT/ACT results for accelerated testers, and to clarify test security information. The school types chart and the corresponding example were also updated to reflect 2022 data.

Chapter 2 was revised in response to public comment to clarify how emergent bilingual (EB) students/English learners (ELs) are determined. Language about SAT/ACT inclusion was revised to provide clarity. A table header was added to note an example, and a reference to an appendix was added to the College, Career, and Military Readiness (CCMR) industry-based certification (IBC) description.

Chapter 3 was revised in response to public comment to clarify how EB students/ELs are determined and an example image describing Part B: Relative Performance was added.

Chapter 4 was updated in response to public comment to clarify how demographic information is determined. Clarifying language was added to the description of the English Language Proficiency denominator as well as the Texas Success Initiative (TSI) component description. A reference to an appendix was added to the CCMR IBC description. Academic growth targets were added as well as long-term targets for the graduation rate component. Language was also added as the U.S. Department of Education's did not grant the 95 percent participation waiver request.

Chapter 5 was not changed.

Chapter 6 was updated in response to public comment to clarify that only campuses and districts rated A, B, or C are eligible for distinction designations.

Chapter 7 was not changed.

Chapter 8 was updated in response to public comment to remove the TSI Data language under the Special Circumstances Appeals section.

Chapter 9 was not changed.

Chapter 10 was not changed.

Chapter 11 was not changed.
