Indicator	Description of Change
1, 2, 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D, 4A, 5, 6, 8, 15, 17	Per clarification call on 4/21/2022 with OSEP team for Texas, the State has included 2020 Targets for each of these indicators. The State has included explanation in the “Optional” section of the indicators that although it has designated 2020 as the baseline year, and written instructions in the OSEP provided U.S Department of Education IDEA Part B FFY 2020 SPP/APR User Guide , section 6.1 located on page 28 reads “Baselines and Targets - If your State needs to update the baseline data for any Indicator, manually update the baseline data field and include a detailed explanation at the bottom of the Indicator Data page in the optional comment box. Baseline dates must be updated under the following circumstances: • OSEP requests them to be updated in the required actions • There is a change in the calculation methodology and/or • A change in the measurement/reporting requirement States can select the current year as an Indicator’s baseline year. If the baseline year is FFY 2020, do not enter a target for that year. ”, OSEP has now directed states to comply with assigning a target, while acknowledging the requirement to enter a target in a baseline year does not align with the written instructions. Stakeholders will be informed of this directive by the Department outside of the expected stakeholder involvement requirements for setting targets in these indicators.
