General Information

The State of Texas Assessments of Academic Readiness (STAAR®) reading language arts (RLA) assessments in grades 3–8 and high school include extended constructed-response items. Extended constructed-response questions are field-tested separately, instead of embedded in the operational assessments, to lessen the burden on students. A stand-alone field test is necessary in the development of extended constructed-response items for use on future administrations of STAAR. Although the Texas Education Agency (TEA) has made a concerted effort to minimize the amount of instructional time used for state testing purposes generally and particularly for stand-alone field testing, a stand-alone field test is periodically needed.

The stand-alone field test will be administered online only in February 2026 and includes the following grades/subjects and courses:

- RLA grades 3-8
- English I and English II
- Spanish RLA grades 3-5

Field-test data from a sample of students who are representative of the state are critical to the state's ability to build high-quality assessments. Texas school systems (public school districts and open-enrollment charter schools) will not receive any field-test data or any performance information from this administration for students, campuses, districts, or the state. However, as a routine part of the test development process for the Texas Assessment Program, field-test questions and data will be reviewed to determine whether the questions are appropriate for inclusion in the test bank.

Students taking the stand-alone field test should be provided with opportunities to use the online practice tests. The test directions assume that students are familiar with the online testing environment. The practice tests, available on the Practice Test Site, provide students with opportunities to interact with the online testing environment, locate and use the available tools, and respond to the various types of test questions that appear on STAAR.

For more information regarding STAAR, refer to the STAAR Resources page on the TEA website.

Eligibility

On August 8, 2025, Texas school systems were notified of their campus selections for participation in the required STAAR Stand-Alone Field Test. Lists of campus assignments for each school system selected to participate in this field test were posted for the district testing coordinator in the Secure File Center. Updated lists of campus assignments will be posted in the Secure File Center by January 16, 2026.

All students at a selected campus who are scheduled to take the assigned STAAR reading language arts (RLA) assessment during the 2025–26 school year should participate in the stand-alone field test. This includes students receiving off-campus instruction (e.g., virtual, home-bound, disciplinary setting). Emergent bilingual (EB) students and students with disabilities should participate, unless a student requires an accommodation that is not available in the online field test. If EB students and students who receive special education services can meaningfully participate in the field test, they should do so.

A language proficiency assessment committee (LPAC) decision is not required for grade 3 EB students to participate in the stand-alone field test. District testing personnel should use their educational expertise to appropriately assign grade 3 EB students to test in English or Spanish at the time of the February field test.

Requirements for Select English Field Test

For the English version of the RLA field test, eligibility includes:

- students who are scheduled to take the assigned grade level STAAR RLA assessment in spring 2026, and
- students who are enrolled in and completing the assigned course (i.e., English I, English II) during the 2025–26 school year, regardless of their enrolled grade.

Four example scenarios are provided below.

- A student who is enrolled in grade 6 but receiving instruction in grade 7 RLA will take the grade 7 RLA field test if his or her campus has been assigned to field-test grade 7 RLA.
- A student who is enrolled in grade 4 but receiving instruction in grade 5 RLA will not take the grade 4 RLA field test if his or her campus has been assigned to field-test grade 4 RLA but will take the grade 5 RLA field test if his or her campus has been assigned to field test grade 5 RLA.
- A student who is enrolled in and completing instruction in English I in spring 2026 will take the English I field test if his or her campus has been assigned to field-test English I.
- A student who was enrolled in and completed instruction in English II in fall 2025 will take the English II field test if his or her campus has been assigned to field-test English II.

Requirements for Census Spanish Field Test

Due to the limited number of students who take Spanish assessments, the Spanish RLA field test will be a census field test. All students in grades 3, 4, and 5 who are scheduled to take the STAAR Spanish RLA assessments in spring 2026 are required to participate in the stand-alone field test, and all school systems who have those students enrolled must administer the field test regardless of whether they have been assigned an English version of the field test. If a campus does not have any students who will be taking the STAAR Spanish RLA assessments in spring 2026, then that campus is not required to participate in the Spanish RLA field test.

Accommodations

During the administration of the stand-alone field test, certain accessibility features may be made available to any student who regularly uses them during classroom instruction. A student cannot be required to use accessibility features during testing, and there is no need to document their use in the Test Information Distribution Engine (TIDE).

Most accommodations available for the operational STAAR assessment (e.g., content and language supports, text-to-speech [TTS], speech-to-text [STT]) are available for the standalone field test for students who need them. However, braille, refreshable braille, and American Sign Language (ASL) videos are not available for the stand-alone field test. The decision to use a particular accommodation with a student should be made on an individual basis and should take into consideration both the needs of the student and whether the student routinely and effectively uses the accommodation in classroom instruction and testing. Accommodations must be indicated in TIDE for students who need them on the stand-alone field test. Documentation about a student's participation or accommodations used in the field test is not required in the student's paperwork.

Scheduling

The stand-alone field test is scheduled for February 2–6, 2026, and will be administered online only. Participating school systems may administer the stand-alone field test at any time during the testing window. District testing personnel should develop a local schedule to administer the field tests during this testing window. The field tests are not timed, but students must complete the field test in one school day. District testing personnel should schedule 2–3 hours for the administration of each field test; however, some tests will likely take longer than others.

Field tests for English RLA consist of 13 test questions, including at most one extended constructed-response question. Field tests for Spanish RLA range from 20 to 24 test questions, including at most one extended constructed-response question. The remainder of each field-test form may vary in the type of test questions presented (e.g., multipart, multiple choice, multiselect, hot text, inline choice).

While make-up testing is optional, participating campuses are strongly encouraged to offer make-up opportunities to students who are absent on the scheduled testing day.

Before Testing

Responsibilities of Testing Personnel

These instructions are intended for use prior to and during the administration of the standalone field test. Testing coordinators should ensure that all personnel involved in the field test receive a copy of these administration instructions. Testing coordinators, technology staff, and test administrators will need to use these instructions to carry out their responsibilities for the field test. Campus coordinators should ensure that test administrators have received sufficient training to carry out their duties and should be on hand to answer questions during the administration of the field test.

Testing Coordinators

- Become familiar with these test administration instructions.
- Review the TIDE User Guide, which provides details for navigating and using the resources available in TIDE.
- Prepare test administrators and technology staff to carry out their duties.
- Ensure that test administrators and technology staff have signed test security oaths.
- Identify students who will participate.
- Schedule the stand-alone field test.
- Set up test sessions and print student test tickets.
- Be available to answer questions.

Test Administrators

- Prepare for administration of the field test and review these test administration instructions.
- Review and sign a test security oath (if not already signed for the 2025–26 school year).
- Coordinate with the campus coordinator to ensure that students have the necessary information they need to log in to their test sessions and take the field test.
- Prepare the testing environment.
- Help students log in to and access their assessments.
- Ensure proper testing procedures.
- Administer the stand-alone field test.
- Maintain test security, including active monitoring.

Technology Staff

- Ensure that administrative rights necessary for installing software are obtained.
- Ensure that network infrastructure and devices have been assessed and meet the Minimum System Requirements.
- Review and sign a test security oath (if not already signed for the 2025–26 school year).
- Ensure that all testing software is properly installed, configured, and tested.
- Ensure that devices are available and properly configured for testing sessions.
- Ensure a Spanish voice pack is available for students testing with a TTS accommodation in Spanish.
- Be available for assistance before and during test sessions to address technology problems that may occur.

UNAUTHORIZED VIEWING, DISCUSSION, DUPLICATION, OR SCORING OF SECURE TEST MATERIALS IS NOT PERMITTED AT ANY TIME.

Test Security and Training

Maintaining the security of all components of the Texas Assessment Program is critical for ensuring fair and equal testing opportunities for all Texas students. Test security for the Texas Assessment Program includes, but is not limited to, preserving the confidentiality of students' individual assessment results and personally identifiable information used or obtained in the administration of an assessment. Given the many uses of student performance data and the need to assure educators, parents, students, and the public that test results are meaningful and valid, it is imperative that all individuals participating in the Texas Assessment Program preserve the integrity of test content and student data through strict adherence to the instructions and procedures contained in the District and Campus Coordinator Resources and the test administration materials.

Training on test security and administration procedures should be provided annually to ensure a standardized test administration and the best testing experience for Texas students. Annual training is especially important for understanding and implementing new or updated policies and procedures. Lack of annual training typically results in testing incidents that may impact students' test scores, campus and district accountability ratings, and, ultimately, an educator's teaching certificate.

All testing personnel involved in the stand-alone field test are required to sign an Oath of Test Security and Confidentiality indicating that they understand their obligations concerning test security and confidentiality. The general test security oath is located in the Test Security section of the Coordinator Resources and must be signed before handling secure test materials.

Prepare for Online Administrations

Test Materials

No paper test booklets, answer documents, or other printed materials will be sent to school systems. Test administrators must ensure that the following required materials are available on the day of testing:

- student test tickets;
- scratch paper, as needed;
- pencils or pens for use with scratch paper;
- dictionaries, if students are using another dictionary in place of or in addition to the dictionary tool embedded in the online testing platform; and
- headsets for students receiving TTS or STT when multiple students are tested in the same room.

Ensure That Students Are Registered in TIDE

- Although the recommended due date for registering students in TIDE for the spring STAAR administration is January 9, 2026, all students participating in the field test MUST be registered in TIDE before the test window opens on February 2, 2026.
- Ensure that students' test attributes are correct:
 - o For grades 3–8, students should have the correct grade indicated.
 - For above grade-level testers, the "STAAR 3–8 Above Grade" flag should be marked in the Student Eligibility-Summative panel.
 - For end-of-course (EOC) testers, the "Spring EOC Eligibility" flag should be marked in the Student Eligibility-Summative panel.
- For Spanish RLA testers, Presentation must be set to "Spanish" under the RLA column in the Test Attributes panel.
- It is not necessary to select the test format; the default format and only format available is online.
- Ensure that all student accommodations are set in the RLA, English I, or English II columns of the Test Attributes panel, as applicable.
- If an eligible student enrolls in a campus that is participating in the field test, the district testing coordinator should ensure the student is added to TIDE with the appropriate attributes marked so he or she can participate in the field test.
- It is not necessary to include demographic or program information for students participating in the stand-alone field test.

• Refer to the Manage Student Information page of the TIDE User Guide for more detailed instructions.

Create Test Sessions

- Campus coordinators may create test sessions in TDS beginning January 12, 2026.
 Because the English stand-alone field-test assignments were made at the campus level, campus coordinators may create test sessions. Test sessions for Spanish field tests may be created by district-level users. Testing personnel must create a test session and select the tests to be administered in the session in the Test Administrator Interface of TDS. Test sessions can be created by clicking on the Create Sessions button.
- Specify the start date, start time, end date, and end time for each test session.
- Ensure that the session start and end dates and times are set within the testing window.
- From the list of color-coded test categories, select the yellow category for the standalone field test. This will display the tests or test groups available for the field test. The Test Selection window displays only tests and test categories that are eligible to be administered. For the stand-alone field test, only tests that have been assigned to the campus will be available in the Test Administrator Interface, and only the tests assigned to the campus (including the Spanish grades 3–5 RLA tests) will be available. If the list of available English tests does not match the list of assigned tests you received in the communications sent by Cambium Assessment, Inc., contact Texas Testing Support.
- Test administrators must schedule or start the test session before students can log in and begin taking the test. For directions on creating and managing a test session, refer to the TDS User Guide.

Become Familiar with Administration Directions

- There are directions indicating which instructions should be read aloud and when. What may and may not be read aloud will vary depending on designated supports, accommodation eligibility, test version, and other circumstances.
- Accommodations can affect how students' assessments are administered. Campus coordinators provide test administrators with instructions on the use of specific accommodations. Test administrators should ensure that students have the accommodations they are eligible for and should contact the campus coordinator if any questions arise about providing or implementing these accommodations. In advance of the test session, test administrators should talk to students who will be receiving accommodations and explain what materials or types of assistance will be available to those students during the assessment.
- Test administrators may help EB students understand the directions that are read aloud before the assessment begins (i.e., the "SAY" directions), as well as the directions that introduce specific assessment sections or question formats. The test administrator may paraphrase, translate, repeat, or read aloud these types of directions if an EB student requests assistance. The test administrator may not add directions that are substantively different (e.g., give pointers, mention test-taking strategies, etc.).

During Testing

Ensure a Proper Testing Environment

- No element of the testing room environment should hinder any student's performance.
- A "Testing—Do Not Disturb" sign should be posted outside the testing room.
- An instructional environment should be maintained during testing windows. It is not necessary to conceal or remove instructional or reference materials in testing areas, classrooms, or hallways unless they could provide assistance or are a direct source of answers for the subject-area assessment being administered.
- Clocks in the testing room, whether analog or digital, do not need to be covered or removed.
- All desks or computer workstations used for testing must be cleared of books and other materials not required for the assessment.
- All desks or computer workstations used for testing must be sufficiently separated from each other so that students cannot see one another's screens.

Ensure Proper Testing Procedures

Testing must be conducted under the best possible conditions to ensure a valid and reliable administration. Follow the procedures listed below to ensure the security and confidentiality of the stand-alone field test and the uniform administration of the field test throughout the state.

- District testing coordinators are required to have procedures in place to prevent student use of cell phones and personal electronic devices during test administrations.
- At least one trained test administrator per 30 students must always be present in each testing room during testing.
- District and campus coordinators may establish start times for testing, but testing should begin within one hour of the start of the school day.
- District testing personnel should schedule test sessions for two to three hours. Students who are still testing after three hours should be consolidated into a general testing area to continue testing. Students must complete the assessment within the same school day, and no test session may exceed seven hours.
- A student who arrives after a test session has started may be tested if sufficient time remains in the day for the student to complete the assessment. District testing personnel should exercise judgment about starting a test session after lunch for students who are late, as they might not have sufficient time to complete the assessment before the end of the school day.

- Test administrators must actively monitor the testing room while students are working.
- Test administrators should verify that students have access only to the materials specifically allowed for the assessment.
- Test administrators may not view or discuss individual assessment questions or responses unless specifically directed to do so by the test procedures.
- Reinforcing, reviewing, or distributing testing strategies during testing is strictly prohibited.
- Students must remain seated during testing except when they are receiving or returning authorized test materials or being consolidated.
- Students are not allowed to talk to one another while testing is in progress.
- After five minutes of inactivity on an assessment, an "Are you still there?" warning message will pop up. The online assessments will automatically pause when the testing devices have been idle for 20 minutes. To complete the assessments, students must log back in using their original test tickets.
- Once a student has completed and submitted the assessment, the test administrator should allow the student to leave the area based on the campus consolidation plan so other students may continue testing.

Test Administration Directions

These directions have been written with the assumption that students are familiar with the tools and features available in TDS from using the online practice tests.

General Information

- A student who takes a break during the test session should pause the assessment. Pausing an assessment logs the student out. To resume testing, the student must repeat the login process.
- For EB students who request assistance, test administrators are allowed to paraphrase, translate, repeat, or read aloud these directions and the directions that introduce particular test sections or question types, as long as the substance of the directions is not changed.
- For students receiving accommodations, the test administrator is permitted to modify the directions when needed.
- For students using TTS, the test administrator is allowed to remind students that a "Do Not Read" icon next to passages or test questions indicates that the text may not be read aloud to the student.
- For students using TTS and content and language supports, the text within these supports will be read aloud unless there is a "Do Not Read" icon.

Read Aloud Directions

The test administrator MUST read aloud WORD FOR WORD the bold text after the word "SAY." Some directions use brackets within the read-aloud text to indicate where information should be verbally inserted. For example, in the statement "Today you will take the [GRADE and SUBJECT or COURSE] Stand-Alone Field Test," the test administrator should verbally fill in the name of the assessment, such as grade 8 reading language arts, as he or she is reading the directions to students. The directions may be repeated as many times as needed. The text in italics is information meant for the test administrator and should not be read aloud to students.

No hagan clic en el botón Enviar prueba [Submit Test] hasta que estén seguros de que ya terminaron. Si no hay ninguna otra pregunta, pueden comenzar.

Assist students with directions as needed.

Additional Information

- Any students using TTS or STT should be told to put on their headphones or headsets.
 If a student's volume is not working, troubleshoot basic steps such as ensuring that the headphones are fully plugged in, Mute is not inadvertently selected, and the volume setting is turned up. If the student is still experiencing issues, contact the campus coordinator.
- During the test session, the test administrator may assist students if they have trouble with the secure browser or the functionality of the tools, features, or accommodations. Refer to Appendix A for information in English about the online tools or to Appendix B for the same information in Spanish.
- Test administrators are not allowed to answer any questions related to the content of the assessment itself. If a student asks a question that a test administrator is not permitted to answer, the test administrator may respond, for example, "I can't answer that for you; just do the best you can" or "No te puedo responder esa pregunta; sólo contesta lo mejor que puedas."

- Test administrators should remind students periodically that they should not click the Submit Test button until they have finished the assessment. Once an assessment is submitted it cannot be restarted by the test administrator.
- If a student for whom the test administrator does not have a student test ticket arrives in the testing room, contact the campus coordinator.
- If any issues arise or assistance is needed, contact the campus coordinator.
- For all breaks, instruct students to pause the assessment.
- As students complete the assessment, collect student test tickets and any scratch paper or reference materials. These materials should be returned to the campus coordinator.
- Once a student has completed and submitted the assessment, the test administrator should allow the student to leave the area according to the campus consolidation plan.
- Because this is a field test and students will not receive scores, it is not necessary to record score codes for any students.

TEST ADMINISTRATORS SHOULD NOT VIEW, COPY, OR DISCUSS THE ONLINE ASSESSMENT CONTENT AT ANY TIME UNLESS SPECIFICALLY GIVEN AUTHORIZATION TO DO SO.
