

STUDENT NAME _____

State of Texas Assessments of Academic Readiness

Biology

STAAR Alternate 2

Administered Spring 2025

RELEASED

BIOLOGY

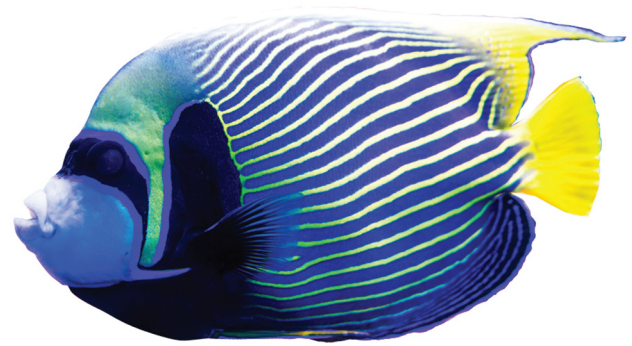

2a

flamingo

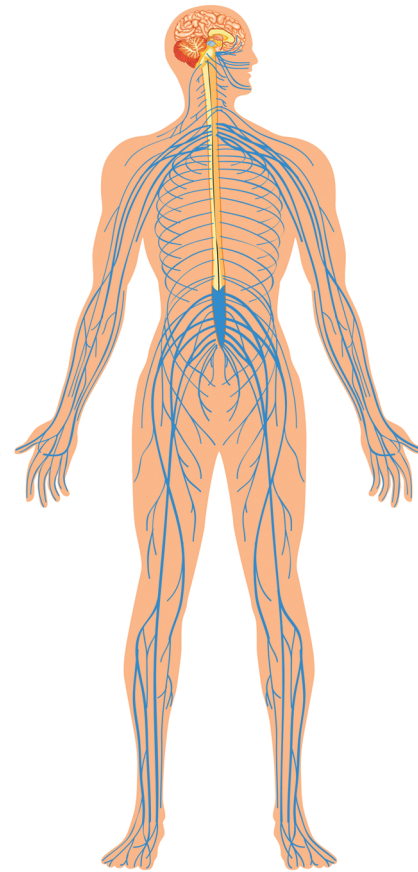

© ILYA AKINSHIN/stock.adobe.com

fish

© tan4ikk/stock.adobe.com

3a

© Vecton/Shutterstock.com

nervous system

lungs

stomach

brain

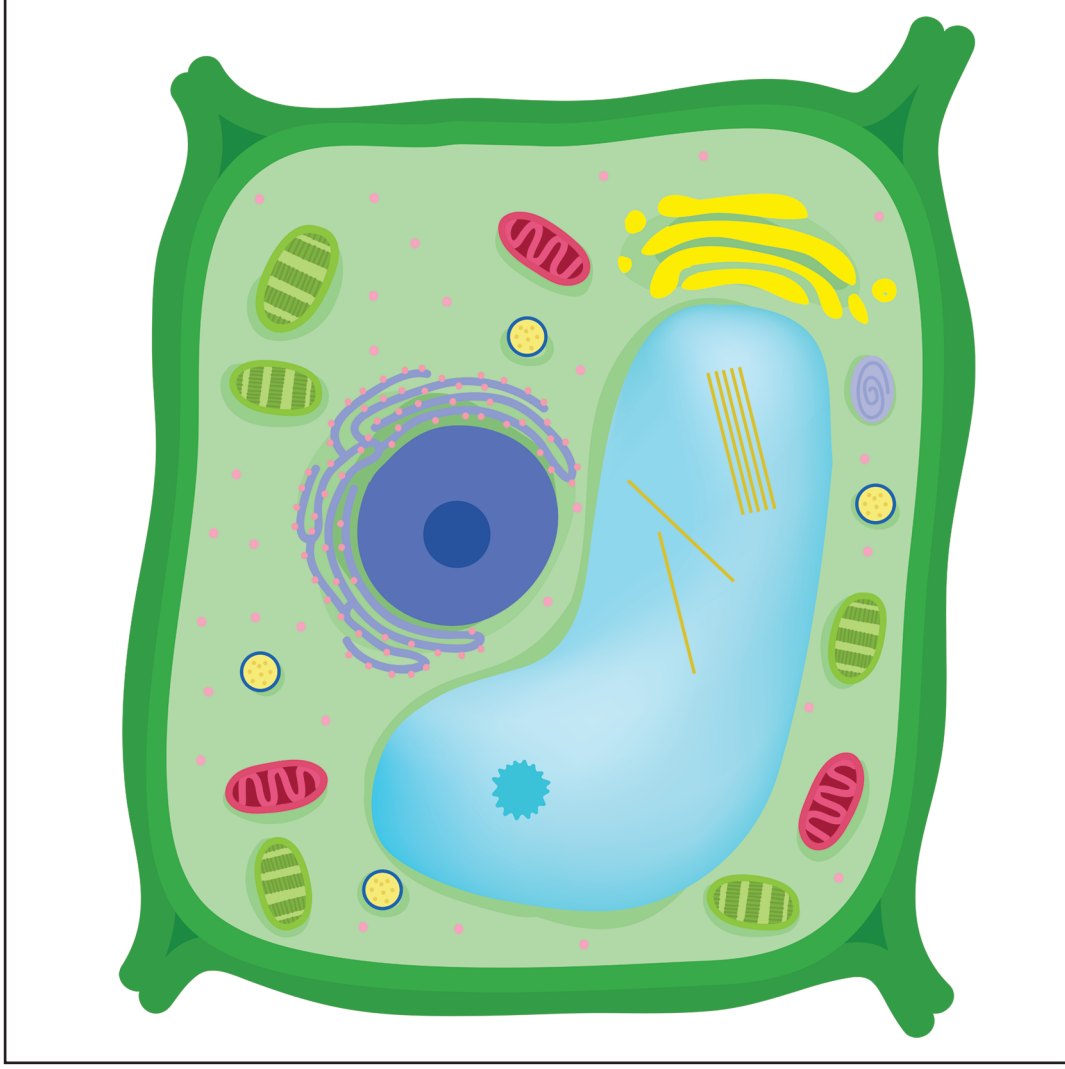

4a

digestive

circulatory

skeletal

6a

leafy plant

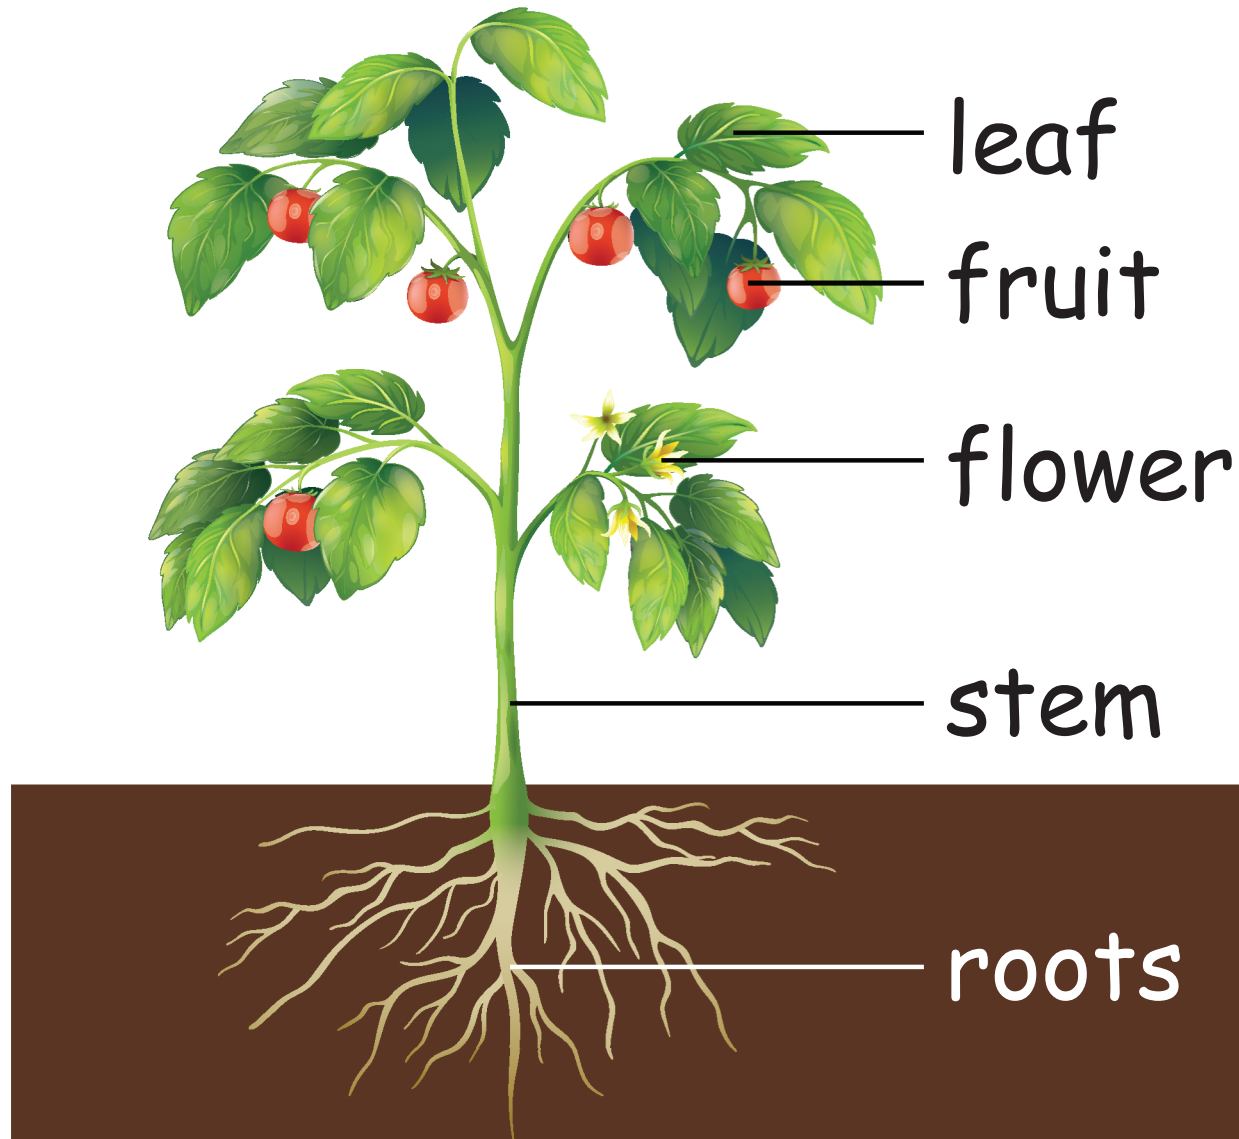

© HP_Photo/stock.adobe.com

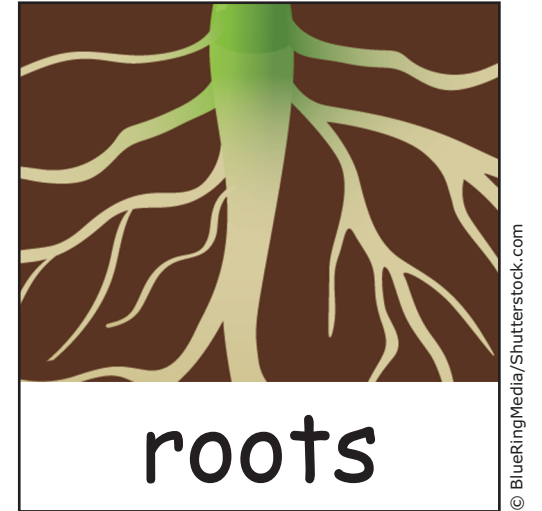

flowering plant

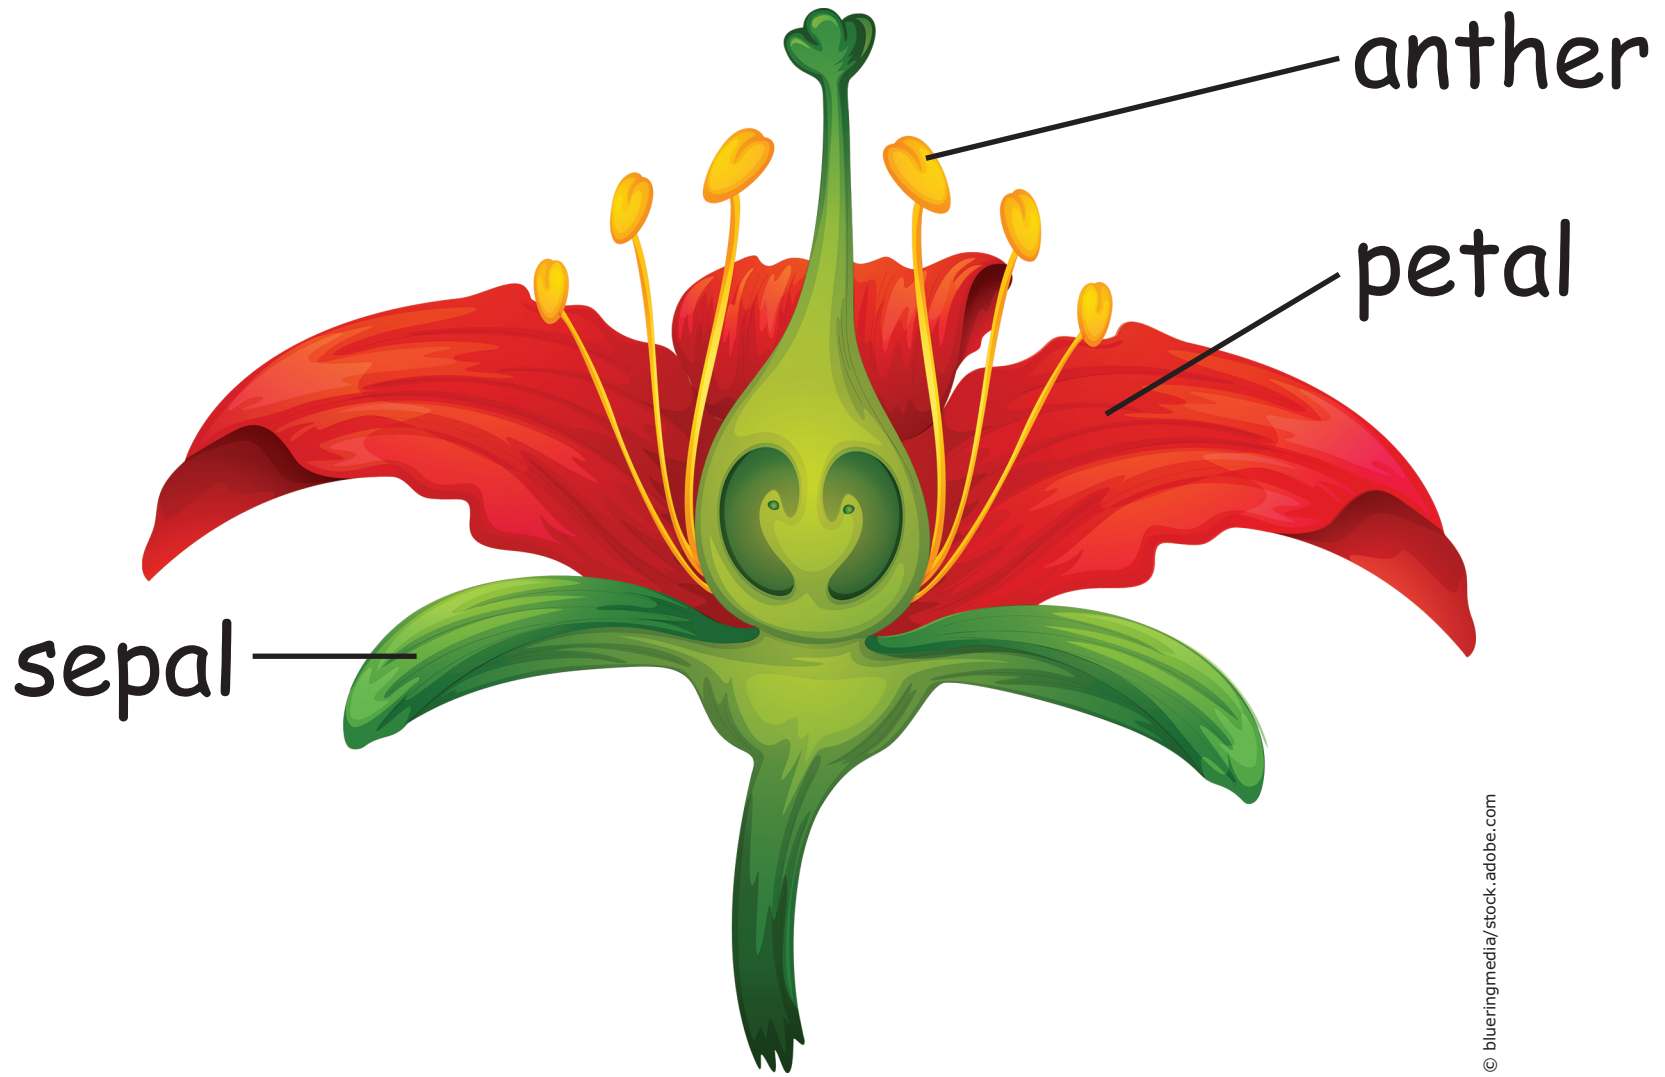

© Pavlo Vakhrushev/stock.adobe.com

Parts of a Flowering Plant

Parts of a Flower

anther

petal

sepal

© Jillian/stock.adobe.com

© Jami/stock.adobe.com

10a

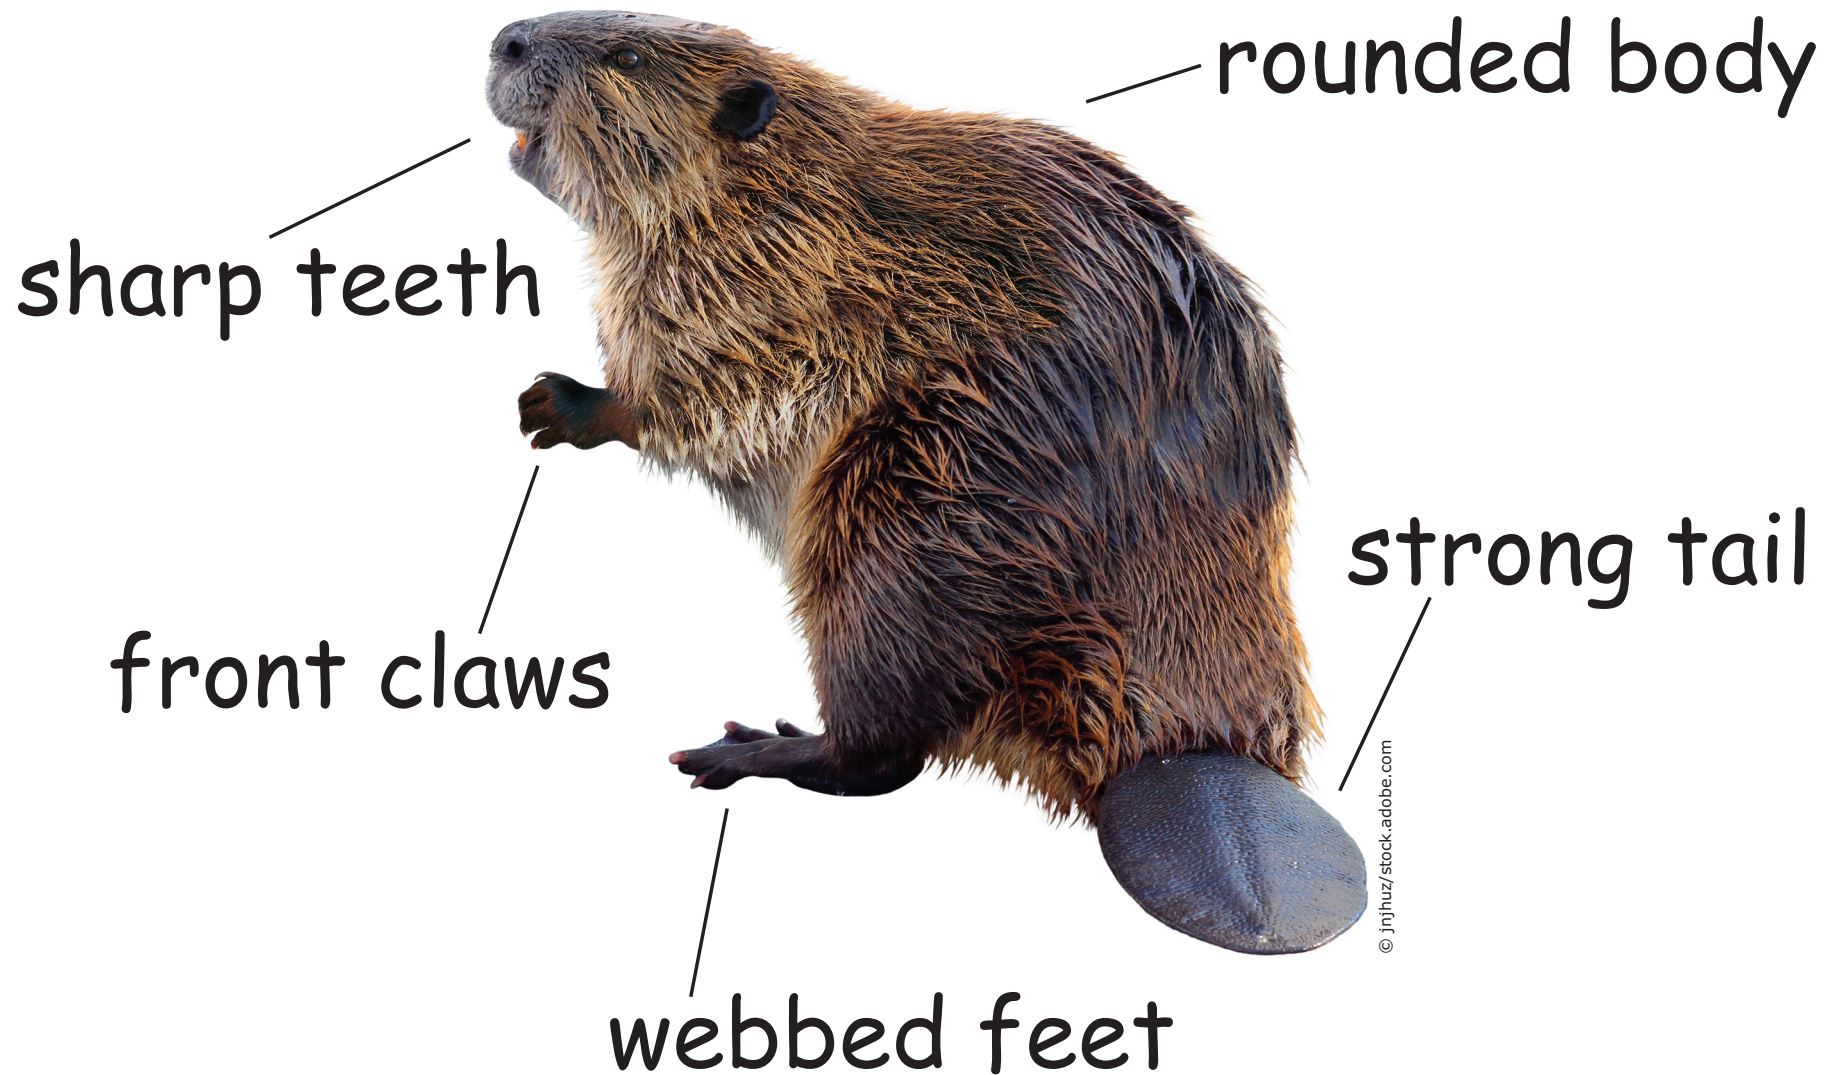

10b

© Jemma Craig/Shutterstock.com

© LianeM/Shutterstock.com

webbed feet

front claws

sharp teeth

12a

creates pollution in the pond

provides a new habitat for other animals

causes an increase in rainfall

fur color

how to hunt

growing special
claws to climb
trees

blending into the surroundings
with fur color

hunting for food
in its environment

Observations The Fox in Town

- looking around for predators
- climbing a tree
- barking to communicate
- digging for food in trash cans

climbing a tree

barking to communicate

digging for food in trash cans

18a

18b

© cctm/Shutterstock.com

© iStock.com/Grafner

19a

loud growling to warn off
predators

strong legs to jump onto boulders

spotted fur to blend in

20a

Cougars would be kept as pets.

Cougars would move to a new environment.

Cougars would become extinct.

STAAR ALTERNATE 2
Biology
Spring 2025

1161612

1 2 3 4 5 A B C D E

Printed in the USA

ISD41759