Strand 2 – Comprehension Skills. Comprehension skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student uses metacognitive skills to both develop and deepen comprehension of increasingly complex texts. The student is expected to:

- understand increasingly longer sentences that combine two ideas (PK3.II.E.4)
- make inferences and predictions about a text (PK4.III.D.4)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society with adult assistance (K)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding with adult assistance (K)
- evaluate details to determine what is most important with adult assistance (K)
- synthesize information to create new understanding with adult assistance (K)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society with adult assistance (1)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding with adult assistance (1)
- evaluate details to determine what is most important with adult assistance (1)
- synthesize information to create new understanding with adult assistance (1)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (2)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (2)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (2)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (2)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (3)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (3)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (3)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (3)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (4)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (4)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (4)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (4)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (5)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (5)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (5)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (5)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (6)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (6)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (6)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (6)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (7)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (7)
- evaluate details ready to determine key ideas (7)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (7)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (8)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (8)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (8)
- synthesize information to create new understanding (8)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (Eng I)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (Eng I)

- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (Eng I)
- synthesize information from two texts to create new understanding (Eng I)
- make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society (Eng II)
- make inferences and use evidence to support understanding (Eng II)
- evaluate details read to determine key ideas (Eng II)
- synthesize information from multiple texts to create new understanding (Eng II)

Strand 3 – Response Skills. Response skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student responds to an increasingly challenging variety of sources that are read, heard, or viewed. The student is expected to:

- respond to situations in ways that demonstrate an understanding of what has been communicated (PK3.II.A.1)
- re-enact a story after it has been read aloud (PK3.III.D.1)
- show understanding by responding appropriately to what has been communicated by adults and peers (PK4.II.A.1)
- retell or re-enact a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end (PK4.III.D.1)
- ask and respond to questions relevant to the text read aloud (PK4.III.D.3)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (K)
- retell texts in ways that maintain meaning (K)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (1)
- retell texts in ways that maintain meaning (1)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (2)
- retell and paraphrase texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (2)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (3)
- retell and paraphrase texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (3)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (4)
- retell, paraphrase, or summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (4)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (5)
- retell, paraphrase, or summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (5)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (6)
- paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (6)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (7)
- paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (7)
- use text evidence to support an appropriate response (8)
- paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (8)
- use text evidence and original commentary to support a comprehensive response (Eng I)
- paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (Eng I)
- use text evidence and original commentary to support an interpretive response (Eng II)
- paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order (Eng II)

Strand 4 – Multiple genres—literary elements. Multiple genres: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts--literary elements. The student recognizes and analyzes literary elements within and across increasingly complex traditional, contemporary, classical, and diverse literary texts. The student is expected to:

- ask and answer age-appropriate questions about a book (PK3.III.D.3)
- use information learned from books by describing, relating, categorizing, or comparing and contrasting (PK4.III.D.2)
- discuss topics and determine the basic theme using text evidence with adult assistance (K)
- identify and describe the main character(s) (K)
- describe the elements of plot development, including the main events, the problem, and the resolution for texts read aloud with adult assistance (K)
- describe the setting (K)
- discuss topics and determine theme using text evidence with adult assistance (1)
- describe the main character(s) and the reason(s) for their actions (1)
- describe plot elements, including the main events, the problem, and the resolution, for texts read aloud and independently (1)
- describe the setting (1)
- discuss topics and determine theme using text evidence with adult assistance (2)
- describe the main character's (characters') internal and external traits (2)
- describe and understand plot elements, including the main events, the conflict, and the resolution, for texts read aloud and independently (2)
- describe the importance of the setting (2)
- infer the theme of a work, distinguishing theme from topic (3)
- explain the relationships among the major and minor characters (3)
- analyze plot elements, including the sequence of events, the conflict, and the resolution (3)
- explain the influence of the setting on the plot (3)
- infer basic themes supported by text evidence (4)
- explain the interactions of the characters and the changes they undergo (4)
- analyze plot elements, including the rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution (4)
- explain the influence of the setting, including historical and cultural settings, on the plot (4)
- infer multiple themes within a text using text evidence (5)
- analyze the relationships of and conflicts among the characters (5)
- analyze plot elements, including rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution (5)
- analyze the influence of the setting, including historical and cultural settings, on the plot (5)
- infer multiple themes within and across texts using text evidence (6)
- analyze how the characters' internal and external responses develop the plot (6)
- analyze plot elements, including rising action, climax, falling action, resolution, and non-linear elements such as flashback (6)
- analyze how the setting, including historical and cultural settings, influences character and plot development (6)
- infer multiple themes within and across texts using text evidence (7)
- analyze how characters' qualities influence events and resolution of the conflict (7)

- analyze plot elements, including the use of foreshadowing and suspense, to advance the plot (7)
- analyze how the setting influences character and plot development (7)
- analyze how themes are developed through the interaction of characters and events (8)
- analyze how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict (8)
- analyze non-linear plot development such as flashbacks, foreshadowing, subplots, and parallel plot structures and compare it to linear plot development (8)
