Introduction

The Texas Education Agency (TEA), as the pass-through entity[1], is the grantee[2] from the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) and TEA awards subgrants to non-federal entities[3] such as local educational agencies (LEAs), including school districts, open-enrollment charter schools, and education service centers, and to a lesser degree institutions of higher education (IHEs), and nonprofit organizations (NPOs) who are the agency's subgrantees[4]. These guidelines apply to all subgrantees of TEA, regardless of whether referenced herein as subgrantee or grantee. For purposes of this document, TEA may use the terms grantee and subgrantee synonymously for its subrecipients.

This document MUST be used in conjunction with the General and Fiscal Guidelines and the specific program instructions. The Standard Application consists of all forms to be completed in order for the applicant to be eligible for funding.

For applicants selected for funding, all guidelines and instructions will be incorporated by reference into the Notice of Grant Award (NOGA).

Purpose of Program

Computer science is the foundation of innovation and represents a high-demand, high-wage career pathway. In 2019, there were 389,000 computing job openings but fewer than 72,000 computer science graduates to fill them. Fortunately, there is evidence to suggest that computer science course offerings in high school may address the labor market shortage.

According to College Board, students who took an Advanced Placement Computer Science Principles (AP CSP) course were twice as likely to continue along a computer science pathway. In fact, students who took an AP CSP course in high school were three times more likely to major in computer science in college, holding true across various demographics. However, in the 2019-2020 school year, 16% of Texas public schools offered AP CSP, and only 6% of rural schools offered AP CSP.

To meet workforce demand and provide valuable student pathways, Texas schools can integrate computer science into their course offerings. Rider 74 of the General Appropriations Act, 2023 has directed these funds to be administered via a grant application process determined by the Commissioner in support of technology, teacher training, and other expenses related to offering an AP CSP course.

Application Requirements and Assurances

This section describes the types of requirements that applicants must assure adherence to in order to be eligible to be considered for funding:

- Statutory requirements (requirements defined in the authorizing statute)
- TEA program requirements (requirements defined by TEA program staff)

Statutory Requirements

See the General and Fiscal Guidelines, Statutory Requirements.

Per TEC §22.0834, any person offered employment by any entity that contracts with TEA or receives grant funds administered by TEA (i.e., a grantee or subgrantee) is subject to the fingerprinting requirement. TEA is prohibited from awarding grant funds to any entity, including nonprofit organizations, that fails to comply with this requirement. For details, refer to the General and Fiscal Guidelines, Fingerprinting Requirement.

TEA Program Requirements

See the General and Fiscal Guidelines, Program Requirements.

Program-Specific Assurances

See the General and Fiscal Guidelines, Provisions and Assurances.
The program-specific assurances are listed on the application.

If selected, grantees are required to do the following tasks, at a minimum:

1. The LEA assures the appointment of a primary point of contract and LEA lead for all grant related activities. The LEA lead will be responsible for ensuring all assurances are met by the LEA, attend grant-related check-ins and webinars hosted by TEA, and communicate with TEA should the primary point of contact leave the LEA during the grant period.

2. The LEA assures participation in an end-of-grant focus group upon request. TEA may reach out to request participation of LEA leadership.

3. The LEA assures the timely submission of all TEA requested data as part of the grant program.

4. The LEA assures the AP CSP grant will be managed to build capacity for the LEA, prioritize marginalized students in receiving access to the AP CSP course, and ensures all course-enrolled students take the AP CSP exam at no cost.

5. The LEA assures the AP CSP to be in the 2024-2025 Course Catalog and the year's master schedule, maximizing the number of students who can take the course. The course description will Identify which program(s) of study the AP CSP course will support or expand.

6. The LEA assures the promotion of the AP CSP course offering to all students. The LEA will strategically and equitably advise and place students in the course, especially those who might take it as part of a program of study. Course promotion strategies and resources will be reported in a TEA program survey due August 31, 2024.

7. The LEA assures the recruitment, identification, and onboarding of certified teachers who will participate in AP CSP professional development training, June-August 2024, in preparation to teach a Fall 2024 AP CSP course. Due to the broad and multidisciplinary nature of the course, teachers do not need to have prior computer science experience. A high school certified teacher of any discipline, who has the desire, can prepare to teach AP CSP by participating in a professional learning experience specifically for AP CSP and approved by the College Board.

8. The LEA assures the selected teacher(s) commitment to teaching an AP CSP course for at least two years after training and participate in LEA provided mentoring and support opportunities. A letter of commitment from each teacher will be sent to the TEA program manager by May 31, 2024.

9. The LEA assures the selection of a professional development provider and the development of a schedule that identifies the modality, scope, and sequence of training, mentoring and support for AP CSP teacher(s).

10. The LEA assures the selection of an appropriate course curriculum prior to the start of the Fall 2024 semester, reporting vendor in a TEA program survey due August 31, 2024.

11. The LEA assures the necessary technology materials and equipment for successful completion of the AP CSP course will be purchased prior to the start of the Fall 2024 semester. Purchases will be reported in a TEA program survey due August 31, 2024.

12. The LEA assures additional learning opportunities will be planned for students who take the AP CSP course, such as work-based learning opportunities, field trips, etc., to encourage students to continue coursework in computer science.

13. The LEA assures support for students in selecting and succeeding in the AP CSP course and exam. A student support plan will include how the AP CSP course supports the student's program of study or graduation plan and describes a variety of academic support strategies to meet a district goal for student course success and a score of 3 or higher on the AP CSP exam. The student support plan will be requested in a TEA program survey due August 31, 2024.

14. The LEA assures funds will be budgeted so that every AP CSP enrolled student can take the next exam available at no cost.

15. The LEA assures the development of a sustainability plan for the course, ensuring the course can continue to be offered after grant funds are no longer available.

Program Elements

This section provides detailed information about the grant.

Description of Program

The AP CSP grant is offered to increase Advanced Placement course offerings on high school campuses within districts across the state, increase the number of students meeting College, Career, and Military Readiness (CCMR) outcomes, increase participation and performance of students taking and passing the AP CSP exam, increase in the number of CTE completers taking an AP course, increase the number of special populations and non-traditional students enrolled in an AP CSP course and prepare students to succeed in computer science related professions. This grant opportunity allows an LEA to achieve this by providing funds for staffing, training, supplies, materials, contracts, travel, technology and equipment to plan, implement and sustain an AP CSP program.
